Delaying the Consequences.

Owing to the fact that a quorum could not be obtained, the House was compelled to adjourn yesterday afternoon. This meant a further delay in the debate on the Loan Resolutions, which should have taken place. This adjournment seems very much like a repetition of the sort of thing which the Government attempted last year presumably with the intention of throwing the Opposition off their balance by continued interruptions of a debate. If this is the motive which is actuating the Government in this connection, then it is so much waste of energy. They have been guilty of extravagance, which even those who knew them for what they are—squanderers of the worst description—never for a moment dreamt of. Now that their guilt has come to light they must be prepared to take the consequences, and no amount of adjournments for want of a quorum, or for any other reason, will serve to lessen the bitterness of the medicine which will be administered.

Wanted--An Axe.

The need for economy is today realized by every Government except our own, and in many cases, steps have been taken to cut down the cost of Government to a minimum, nor is sentiment permitted to interfere in any way with proposed measures for economy. In England, Sir Eric Geddes was appointed Chairman of a Commission to find means whereby the Government might be able to reduce expenditure. The reception, which his report received, caused Sir Eric's resignation, but nevertheless, reason has forced the British Government to act upon his recommendations. What we in Newfoundland need is a similar commission consisting of men who are not in need of favour, who are level headed business and professional men, and have the country's interests at heart. This commission should have authority to investigate the estimates and cut from them, every item which is not an absolute necessity. In this country to-day, we have one useless department, the Ministry of Education, while nearly every other department of the Government is filled with unnecessary officials, and is wasteful and extravagant. If ever there were need for the application of the "axe," it is now, and if only the Government would realize this, it would greatly improve our chances of ultimate recovery.

MERCANTILE HOCKEY. — Bowline's and Harvey's hockey teams will clash to-night at the Prince's Rink in a game which will decide the Mercantile Championship for 1922. Both teams have strong aggregations and the game should prove interesting.

Loyal Orange Association.

JUBILEE SERVICE, PARADE AND BANQUET—RED-LETTER DAY IN ANNALS OF ORDER IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

The P.G. Lodge was called to order shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning. P.G. Master Cave in the chair. After the minutes of previous session had been confirmed, reports from various committees were received and considered. One of particular interest was that dealing with the education of children of deceased Orangemen. Grand Lodge is developing a scheme whereby all such children will be assured at least a free elementary education. At 11 o'clock the Padre, Rev. T. Nangle, addressed the Lodge on behalf of the War Memorial and received an enthusiastic reception. For over half an hour he told of his work among the boys of the Regiment and of the debt the country owes them, and he pleaded for assistance to raise to the memory of those who have "gone west" a memorial worthy of their great sacrifice. A vote of thanks proposed by Grand Secretary Snow and seconded by P.P.G.M. John Snow was heartily accorded the Padre, who then left amid hearty handshakes. A delegation consisting of Hon. Robert Watson and Dr. Robinson, representing the Marist Disasters Fund, was then received. Both gentlemen spoke on the work which was being done through this fund, and pointed out that an organization so widely extended as the Orange Association could make the fund more valuable and permit those in charge to do even more than they are now accomplishing. A vote of thanks proposed by Bro. F. G. Bradley and seconded by the Grand Chaplain, Rev. J. W. Winsor, was tendered the speakers. Both matters will receive the earnest consideration of Grand Lodge. Adjournment was then taken.

ATTENDS DIVINE SERVICE.
At 2.15 o'clock in the afternoon a very large audience of Orangemen assembled at Victoria Hall to take part in the Church Parade held under the auspices of Grand Lodge. Some four hundred brethren were formed up in procession order by the Grand Director of Ceremonies and his aides, proceeding to the Anglican Cathedral of St. John the Baptist, being received at the western door by the Church Warden and Vestry, and ushered to seats in the nave. The C. L.B. Band were seated within the Chancel, M.G. Band No. 1 in South Transept, and Band No. 2 in North Transept. A large congregation was present, the aisles being occupied. Whilst waiting for the Orange brethren to take their places an organ recital was given by Mr. F. J. King. The full choir (vested) with the clergy, Revs. Canon Jeeves and E. C. Earp, Rector of St. Thomas's, in procession, headed by the Episcopal Cross entered from the crypt, the processional hymn "Eternal Father, God Supreme" being sung. The service was commenced with a short prayer by the Rector from his position at the altar, at the conclusion all joining in repeating the Lord's Prayer, Psalm CXLVIII, "O praise the Lord of Heaven," was followed by the Lesson taken from St. Paul's Epistle to the Colossians 3rd Chapter, beginning at 12 verses. The anthem "Send Forth Thy Light," was magnificently rendered by the choir, the vast congregation standing during this period, all subsequently joining in the saying of the Apostles Creed. Prayers for the King and Royal Family and for Unity with one for General Thanksgiving were concluded with that of St. Chrysostom, and the Doxology. The well-known and familiar hymn the first line of which is "Fight the Good Fight," came next in order, the C.L.B. C. Band, under the direction of Capt. Morris accompanying. The sermon—a masterpiece—by Rev. E. C. Earp, B.A. was based on a text from Deuteronomy, 8th Chapter, 2nd verse, "Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord Thy God led thee." Upon his subject, Gratitude, the preacher dwelt at length, his language and diction driving home the truths which humanity must accept if men would know God. Particular reference was made to the Golden Jubilee of Orangemen in Newfoundland, which was being celebrated in such a devotional manner in the Cathedral Church of the city in which the Association was first established in the Colony. Touching upon the sacrifices made by the brethren in the late war, the preacher said these men had made a free gift of their lives, yet though they had offered up all they had, yet they were not lost. They gave but we must remember. Their service is our service to-day, to-morrow and for ever. In an eloquent peroration Mr. Earp dilated upon the duties of every member of the fraternity and exhorted all to live up to the grand principles of the Great and Imperial Order to which they were privileged to belong. The memories and instruction of this sermon will not soon fade from the minds of those who heard it, and our only regret is that we cannot reproduce the address verbatim. During the taking of the Offertory, which was donated to the Cathedral Funds, the C.L.B.G. Band played "Land of Hope and Glory" in its well-known cultured and perfect style. The hymn familiarly known all over Christendom as the "Old Hundred" and the National Anthem by the C.L.B.G. Band, concluded the service, the Benediction being pronounced by the Rector, Rev. Canon Jeeves. Choir and clergy paraphrased the Cathedral in recession, while the old old hymn which has come down through all time "O God our help in ages past" was sung. On leaving the sacred building the route of march was to Government House, entering by the Western gate. His Excellency received and addressed the procession, whereupon cheers were called for and heartily given for His Majesty the King and the Governor. The Grand Officers of the Orange and Black were introduced to Sir Charles by Deputy Grand Master E. J. Sansom, and, having tendered unswerving expressions of loyalty on behalf of the Orange Association, were entertained by His Excellency. Leaving the grounds by the East gate the procession marched to Water Street, via Kings Bridge Road, Ordnance Street, continuing West to Springdale up which turn was made and so along New Gower, Theatre Hill, and Gower to the Hall, where parade was dismissed and Lodge adjourned.

CELEBRATION BANQUET.
At 8 o'clock the Methodist College Hall was the scene of an animated gathering, when about three hundred Orangemen and their guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner for which the Ladies College Aid Society had catered, and served in their well known and unexcelled style. The Grand Master was in the chair and stated about him were the following guests:—The Prime Minister, Sir W. F. Lloyd, Messrs. J. R. Bennett, M.H.A., Hon. Tasker Cook, C. R. Duder (Masonic), E. Simmons (S.O.E.B.S.), J. S. Curnew (S.U.F.), G. T. Phillips (I.O.O.F.), C. W. Bowden (N.E.S.), R. G. Ross (St. Andrew's), A. H. Salter (Curling), Revs. M. Fenwick, B. T. Holden, Colonel Martin, S.A., Messrs. R. Hibbs, M.H.A. (Advocate), Hon. W. F. Penney (Speaker), W. W. Harty, Messrs. C. C. Pratt, A. B. Morne, K.C., Inspector General Hutchings, H. W. Munn, T. R. Ricketts, V.C., Joseph Peters, B. B. Stafford, Dr. H. M. Mosdell, H. Macpherson, W. White. An excellent menu was thoroughly discussed. The service was swift and silent and there was none of that vacillating waiting which is so prevalent at such functions, and tends to prolong the time. Following dinner the annexed Toast List was taken up. All the speeches were of a high order and quality as the names of the proposers and responders imply. Mr. Bert Noseworthy presided at the piano and Mr. H. E. Cowan was musical director, his selections from the song sheet being most appropriate.

At an early hour this morning the gathering broke up. Great praise is due Bro. E. A. Crowther, Chairman, and his Celebration Committee, for the very capable manner in which they arranged and carried out all matters in connection with the Golden Jubilee of the Grand Orange Lodge of Newfoundland.

Grand Lodge resumed at 9.30 o'clock this morning, when reports of Primary Lodge delegates were heard. The session is being continued this afternoon, and will be on again to-night.

House Meets To-Day.
LOAN WILL BE DEBATED.

The House meets at 3 p.m. to-day when the loan resolutions will be debated and the government will come in for some severe criticism from the opposition ranks. It is also likely that the House will formally go into Committee the whole on Supply so that the estimates may be tabled by the Prime Minister, who is acting Minister of Finance and Customs. Yesterday's adjournment for want of a quorum appeared to be by mutual arrangement for there were only five members present. Several members of the Government were in the Orange parade and the Opposition members did not turn up for reasons best known to themselves. Yesterday morning the Governor received the Address in Reply.

A boy was charged before Judge Morris to-day with cruelty to a pony. The police witness, who lives opposite the defendant said he looked out of his window, and saw accused kick the animal with his boot. Accused denied cruelty, and said the pony would not stay quiet and he hit it with his knee. His Honour said that it was an unfortunate fact that cruelty to animals was often practised. He imposed a fine of $2 or 7 days.

A Curious Wager.

WHO ROCKED THE BOAT?
A well known city sport, who is interested in fish, created considerable surprise recently by parading the whole length of Water Street with a wibbly, wabbling stick which was apparently the bedfellow of the one which Sir Harry Lauder used in his music hall days. It has since been learned that this strange action was the result of a wager by means of which the gentleman in question was trying to remunerate himself for the cost of an aeroplane ride which he took recently. It is said that he was supposed to stop every friend he met and tell him to sit down, as he was rocking the boat.

On that occasion he had not been prosecuted. A further remand was ordered pending investigations.

Grand Jury Report.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS VISITED.

The Grand Jury for the Winter Session of 1922 made their presentation to the Supreme Court to-day. The report on inspection of the Penitentiary states that there were 68 male and 7 female prisoners. The place was in a very satisfactory condition. The jury recommended that similar industries to broom making be introduced in order to give employment to prisoners now compelled to be idle.

Referring to the Poor Asylum the jury concurred in its recommendation in former reports for the building of a new institution. The Water and Sanitary arrangements were reported inadequate and unsatisfactory and desisted that the attention of the Board of Health might be called to the matter. The Superintendent urges the necessity of a general clean up of the whole place both inside and out. There are 76 male and 55 female inmates in the institution.

The committee of the jury who visited the Insane Asylum were given to understand that the portion of the building set apart for acute cases is badly heated and poorly ventilated, and the report states that the wards which form part of the original building are very badly heated and the wonder is that some of the patients have not been severely frostbitten. Regarding fire protection the presentment says, "There is, other than stairs, only one fire escape on each side of the building, and these are so constructed that it would be practically impossible for a sane person to escape."

Gained Fox Jim Carbery proved a "star"
But did himself much harm
By leaving openings, when all cried—
"Now Fox you've got a farm."

Power was a "K.C." at the bat.
Away he quickly flew
And with some big breaks left behind
His man a Myler two.

And when McFarlane missed a shot
Came groans instead of cheers,
It was a most affecting sight.
The chairs were all in tiers.

George Knowling was in splendid luck.
The reason all men knew
Was that he was playing his game
He grasped George Rabbits' paw.

When Johnnie Angel broke the balls
The band below just played,
And Padre Nangle shouted—"Hark,"
"The Angel's Serenade."

When Strang knocked his opponent out,
The man grew very wrath
And said "You're a professional;
You live upon the Cloth."

Some one asked Spratt after his game
If he'd like a small griffin;
'Oh no,' said Jim, 'thanks all the same
I've just got through a "Hickey."

Judge on Larcenies.

WILL PUNISH WITH MAXIMUM SENTENCE.

His Honour Judge Morris, when passing judgment on a larceny case yesterday, announced that in future any defendants convicted before him would be prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law. There were far too many larcenies now and he was determined to put them down with a heavy hand. The accused, in the case Judge had just heard, had pleaded that they stole some coal because they had none in their homes. His Honour said that such a plea would receive no consideration as there was no excuse for committing a larceny.

Newfoundland Golfer.

Mr. Arthur Gosling, son of Mr. W. G. Gosling, won his match when playing golf for Cambridge against Oursford. On Tuesday, a 36 hole foursome was played, and was won by Cambridge, and yesterday, 36-hole singles were played. Mr. Gosling has obtained the much coveted "blue," which is the reward of those selected to represent the "Varsity in any games."

Sir Patrick McGrath will lecture to the Llewellyn Club and their friends to-morrow (Thursday) night in Canon Wood Hall. His subject will be "A Trip Across Canada," illustrated by Canadian slides. Musical numbers will be given. A collection will be taken. Admission free. A hearty welcome to all, including the ladies.—mar29,tf

BECOMING RESTIVE.—It is said that there is a lot of dissatisfaction amongst the unemployed, and those who are only part time work. Efforts are being made by some of the men to hire a hall to hold a meeting during the week.
