

The Russian Capital Inundated.
Late European papers contain particulars of the inundation of St. Petersburg, caused by the overflow of the river Neva, on October 14th. Almost without premonition a violent hurricane set in and the water in the river began to rise with great rapidity. In a few hours the water was about ten feet above its ordinary level, and the proprietors had time to many streets which had not been flooded since the great inundation of 1824. The whole of the lower part of the city appears to have been completely submerged. The trees in the public gardens were broken or uprooted; ships in the river were torn from their anchors and thrown against the floating bridges, all of which were more or less damaged; telegraph communication was suspended, the wires torn away, and several coasting ships were floated into the streets. The wooden pavement was destroyed, fences were carried away, chimneys, posts, trees, down and roofs torn off. The poor people were panic-stricken, and many were obliged to abandon the little property they possessed, being only too glad to save their lives. Some were taken off in boats. The Zoological Gardens were completely under water, and the proprietors had the greatest difficulty in saving the animals. The elephant, in particular, gave a great deal of trouble, but was at last led in safety to the nearest police-station, where he remained for the night.

The loss of property is said to have been immense, but so far no loss of life has been reported.

The London Advertiser says: The John A. following seems to be melting away like that of the late Sandfield Macdonald after his defeat in the Ontario Legislature. One of the signatories of the resignation to Mr. Blake to enter the new Reform Government at Ottawa was Mr. O'Reilly, Q. C. of Kingston. A well-known western M. P. has signified his willingness to act in a similar spirit.—Late reliable information gives the new Government an average majority of forty votes. We wish here to enter a protest in time. We can't receive Mr. John Carling into the Reform ranks. It is absolutely necessary to draw the line somewhere. We draw it above Mr. Carling.

On Wednesday next a marriage in high life is to be celebrated at St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto. On that Day Beatrice, the eldest daughter of Lieutenant-Governor Crawford, will be married to Mr. Watson, of the Royal Canadian Bank.

IMPROVE NUTRITION.—The central idea in the treatment of all Chronic Wasting Diseases, resulting in Nervous Prostration and General Debility, is to improve the Digestion and Assimilation of Food, and the Formation of Healthy Blood. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calissaya contains the only agents known that directly act as assistants of nutrition, by imparting tone to the Stomach, Liver and Pancreas, the great triad that prepares nourishment for building up the organs and tissues of the body. The action of this remarkable preparation is extraordinary in strength and vitality, and is exhausted by excesses, bad habits, or run down by old complaints that have resisted all ordinary methods of treatment. Being a delicious cordial to take, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances, it is eminently adapted to prostrate anemic women and delicate children.

A BOOK FOR EVERY MAN.—The "SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR SELF-PRESERVATION," a Medical Treatise on the Cause and Cure of Exhausted Vitality, Premature Decline in Man, Nervous or Physical Debility, Hypochondria, Impotency, Spermatorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, and all other diseases arising from the errors of youth or the indiscretions or excesses of mature years. This is indeed a book for every man. Thousands have been taught by its work the true way to health and happiness. It is the choicest and best medical work ever published, and the only one on this class of ill's worth reading. 100th edition, revised, much enlarged, illustrated, bound in beautiful French cloth. Price $1. Sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price. Address: PEARSON MEDICAL INSTITUTION, No. 4, Ruitnach Street, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H. PARKER, Assistant Physician, N. B.—The author may be consulted on the above as well as all diseases requiring skill and experience. apply
