norning, probably due to the fact that omorrow is the holiday market. There vere only some dozen loads of hay, despite the fact that the demand was unsually brisk. The prevailing price was $15. One load brought $15.50, while two or three loads of clover hay went as low 1st.

It is expected that there will be market of hay tomore. An animal state of hay tomore with the state of hay tomore will be market of hay to the fact that the demand was unsubstituted by the fact that the demand was unsubstituted by the fact that the demand was unsubstituted by the fact that the wheat patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; so the patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; so the patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; so the patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; so the patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; so the patents, $5.60; second patents, $5.10; strong bakers, $1.90; strong

It is expected that there will be a big market of hay tomorrow, which, with the usual holiday market, will likely crowd the square to its capacity.

There was only a very small supply of oats offered this morning, but the demand was also very light. The prevailing price was $1.20.

Locomotive Wheel Damaged But Was Noticed in Time to Save Trouble.

That G. T. R. passenger train No. 23 was not wrecked yesterday morning through a broken tire on Engine 1334 is due to the vigilance of Engineer George Phipps, who, when examining the locomotive at the station prior to making the run to Windsor, discovered the defect.

Had the tire, which was cracked almost across the full width, given way when the train was running at high speed, a wreck would have been the inevitable result, according to local railroaders.
