ings."

of the facts."

The Orphan Onion.

telepathic sense of sadness conveyed to him by a lobelia plant that had been separated from its companion suggested an awful possibility. Are we now to have a flood of literature touching upon the psychic qualities of

There was an indefinable sense of sadness in the air, the aura of a great

My companions, murmuring of im-

I was afferted even to tears by this

I became vaguely disquieted, and the asked her, "a sorrowful fragrance, as

She, too, looked i'll at ease. "Orions," she cried decisively, an

It was indeed a young onion whose sorrows had so moved me. The poor lad, with all the tenderness of youth.

was bruised in spirit. Gropingly I

pathic waves infringed upon my soul-message came distinct vivid self. Slowly from my subconscious Me enough to startle even the gross mapathetically. "Why, oh why, did you eat me without liver"-Portland Ore-

MORE OR LESS PHILOSOPHY.

A miss is as good as a widow. Leap year will soon be followed by

At 30 a girl is hardly ever as old

We are too apt to throw bouquets

Most men can say their prayers

When virtue gets its own reward i

Mrs. Chadwick and Nan Patterson are useful for horrible examples if for

There is no rejoicing more hearty than that of discovering what faults

A man begins his career craving

The Globe's statement that Mr. Ross is building up New Ontario, possibly means that he has taken to the woods.

Women like to have their husbands in public life so people will treat the wives as if they were of great im-

Every once in so often a woman just has to suspect that she really

Another Presbyterian minister is out with an open letter. Of course he is "Roasting Ross." Most of 'em are

The Grit newspapers are firing oc casional bricks at Rev. Mr. Hossack

but not one of them, so far, has bee able to deny the truth of what h

DUE TO A BOILER-MAKER'S

NEGLIGENCE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 30.-The coro ner's jury to-day found that the exolosion which occurred Dec. 15 of the battleship Massachusetts at th

League Island navy yard, resulting i the loss of three lives, was due to the negligence of Peter Anderson, a boile naker. The verdict was rendered the testimony of John M. Lukens nspection, who said Anderson attempt pressure of steam in the boiler was pounds, which is entirely too high ed to do his work at a time when the

BROKEN FAIRLY IN TWO.

steamer Drumelzier, which

New York, Dec. 30.-The British

Island during the storm last Sunday and it is believed that much of he valuable cargo will be a total loss

To-day the waves continued to run ought to be the moral enemy of he public honors, and a woman sweet-nothing else.

best friend.

doing that these days.

our friends have.

hearts and jewels.

is after it has done a lot of advertis

at the dead and mud at the living.

look before you leap" year.

as she will admit she is at 20.

ried to commanicate with him.

entry of my wife came as a shock.
"Do you feel anything in the air."

portant engagements, left me one by vegetation?--Indianapolis Star.

was alone in my room.

CANADIAN TRADE RATHER QUIET

Merchants Report Heavy Holiday Business

THE SITUATION IN LONDON gogue readers, but who are not legal-mprovement in Distribution of Money With Promise of an Active Wholesale Trade.

(By Special G. N. W. Wire). Toronto, Dec. 30.—Bradstreet's trad-eview, weekly summary:-At Montreal wholesale trade is ligh nd things are quiet, despite the fachat good sleighing throughout th ountry has greatly helped the moveent of country stocks. Retail trade has been active in the city as well as in the country, and it is generally stated that retail stocks are pretty ell cleared out. Manufacturers her ontine active in the main, although he cold weather has put an end activity in some lines of industry llections are fair. At Toronto trade conditions continue fairly good. Wholesalers generally re nany are busy stock-taking. The holday trade was heavy, and retailers in early all departments of trade are reported to be carrying light stocks which will need replenishing with the turn of the year. The Christmas trade nas been profitable, and wholesalers generally are optimistic in their views of the outlook for the trade of the ning season. Collections are fair and remittances rather good. At Quebec wholesale business during the past week has been small, the re sult of the holiday season. City tradhas been brisk, and retailers report a good turnover. Weather conditions were favorable. No improvement is noticeable in country remittances. Winnipeg reports say:—"There is a fair amount of activity in wholesale and stocks of all lines have been movng fairly well. The holiday trade proved heavy. The improvement in collections is only slight. Money is expected to be freer after the New ear. Wholesalers, too, expect great-in business at that time, and are making preparations accord-Advices from Victoria and Vancou ver say:-"Trade conditions here coninue fairly good, although the volume of wholesale trade is just now a little quiet. The holiday trade was heavy and merchants are preparing for the renewed activity which is expected for the New Year. Collections are fair.

Trade at London is rather quiet, alhe distribution of money. The retailers have had a good season in holiday goods, and there is a promise of an active wholesale trade with the opening of the New Year. Trade at Ottawa is in fairly satisfactory condition. It is, however, no neavier than is usual at this season of

INFECTED GYPSIES

Montreal Authorities Say They Escaped from Detention.

A despatch from Montreal says: "The Montreal immigration authorities were this morning notified that 35 or 40 gypsy immigrants, who reescaped from detention here are located at Toronto. The party were infected with trachoma and detained, but were produced in court by the aid of local Asyrians escaped. ace then no word has been heard of them until this morning. The authorities are keeping a watch on the party, but are not making any effort

309 DEATHS IN A WEEK

Pneumonia Again Epidemic in New York.

already known and allowing for unreported cases for deaths during the year it is estimated that there are now nearly 28,000 cases.

A TOTAL LOSS

Crew of the North-eastern Rescued With Great Difficulty.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire). Norfolk, Va., Dec. 30.-The steamship Northeastern, which was wrecked Tuesday night on Inner Diamond Shoals and whose crew was brought safely ashore vesterday through nine been given up as a total loss. Everything belonging to the ship and crew is lost, including the ship's papers and logbook. The rescue of the 22 men from the Northeastern by the U. life savers of Hatteras and Kennakee under Captain Etheridge and Peel is savers pulled their surf boats over the 18 miles to and from the wreck boat carried 20 men on the return

ILLEGAL MARRIAGES

Amendment of the Ontario Law Con sidered Necessary.

(By Special G. N. W. Wire.) Toronto, Dec. 30 .- Information ha een received by the Provincial Secretary's department, which leads to the belief that among the poorer age laws of the land are being badr ignored. The allegation is that arriages, which are entirely illegal, re arranged, and that when union proves unsatisfactory or tiresome there is in vogue a system of divorce which is equally reprehensible. The department instituted an inquiry into the facts, and sufficient information as the facts, and sufficient information to the truth of the charges has already been secured for warranting ready been secured for warranting "Mad Britisher" and an give the officers of the law sufficien power to put a stop to the practice The marriages, it is said, have bee performed in a most informal man-

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same clean- outlaws who are reported to have com ing purpose. you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the the sake of empty curiosity? Surely not gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and car-

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

In the stomach and throat from the poison of catarrh.

best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless anti-septics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter brea'h and purer blood, and the beauty it is, that no possible harm cand result from their continued use, but on the contrary great health.

A quiet, apparently innocent, ride out along a specified road at a given point, two travellers, mounted on Chinese ponies, look eagerly around for a native horseman. No one is in sight. After all, they have been deceived. The Chunchuses have changed their minds. Yet, perhaps there is some mistake. Try a httle further on! Scarcely is the decision made to move forward when there is a rustle in the uncut kowliang, and a tall, broad-shouldered man steps out from among the eightfoot stalks. As he approaches he assumes a stooping position, and, classing his hands, makes a momentary great henefit.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in Some sense a natent preparation water.

Russian artillery engaged in an action on Dec. 29 against the Japanese south of Shahke, and near the railroad turn out to see the new arrivals. Dogs bridge, the firing continuing till six o'clock in the evening. The bombardment of the Japanese position was effective. The Japanese replied very slovely with chronnel and Chimago first view it suggests a suggest of the ponies are unsaddled and fed. At the ponies are unsaddled and fed. At fective. The Japanese replied very slowly, with shrapnel and Shimose shells, and did very little damage.

It Was Moving Time. The woman was agitated, "I don't believe in man, nor woman, nor child to-day," said she. "There is no truth anywhere. Happiness is a myth and charity a thing of the past." "What in the world has happened?" asked the woman's companion. "I'm moving," that lady replied and, though she said no more, the other woman understood and sighed "Poor thing!" and determined not to press ander a writ of habeas corpus, and, her with questions nor to try to soothe her tortured soul. "It isn't just an ordinary moving, either," went on the woman, as though glad to relieve her mind we left the house in which

Dr. Sheard stated this morning that we had lived for many, many years, Dr. Sheard stated this morning that he had not heard of the gypsies being here and knows nothing of them or their whereabouts. He said he did not regard trachoma, which is a disease of the eyes, as dangerous in this country. In London, where the neople were crowded together, it did spread, but with difficulty. the man who always moves our things and told him we would be ready to come in yesterday.
"When he arrived, in the haste of the old residence. He drove away, and we came in on the cars and went New York, Dec. 30.—Reports to the health department show that pulmonary and bronchial diseases are causing great mortality in this city. Inclement weather before Christmas, combined with fatigue from over-exercition in preparation for the holidays caused the epidemic. There were 309 deaths from pneumonia last week, an increase of 36 over the week previous, and 37 more than during the corresponding week of last year. Pleurisy, bronchitis and colds of all degrees flourish. new house and waited and the news of the neighborhood by tele-Officials of the department say the pathy, told them that we were going death rate from phthisis has been into a new house, and where it was. steadily rising, and that, since Jan. 1. I don't think they need have been so more than 12,000 new cases have been mad about it. It was perfectly natreported in the city. Added to those ural for us to forget to tell them where we were going. The woman's companions made no remark. They felt she was not in a humor to argue with. after a minute. "All of the cooking things are in what is going to be the drawing-room after a while. At least, not all of them, for we carried the great care to the kitchen, ar after we had got them there, some one renembered that we might have sent them down on the dumb waiter. There's neither gallantry in man nor amiability in woman any more-no there isn't! You should see our cook and hear the men who are moving us," said the woman—and hastened away,-Baltimore News.

TO OPEN BALLOT BOXES Denver, Dec. 30 .- Chief Justice Gabbert to-day announced the decision of the Supreme Court to grant the pefor the opening of all the ballot boxes used in Denver at the late election, and a full investigation of all frauds. Mr. Adams' object in filing the petition was to secure a legal determination of the question whether he or their James H. Peabody is entitled to fill the office of Governor for the next and later shot a policeman who arrested him and a bystander. All his mentrality?"

The Chunchuses are not bound by victims recovered.

laws other than their own. If they choose classes of Jews in Toronto the mar- victims recovered.

WITH BRIGANDS IN MANCHURIA

American Captain

CHUNCHUSE CHIEF TALKS

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL A. G. Simpson Learns That There Are Thousands of Irregulars on the Russian Rear. Chinchow, Oct. 7 .- A mad Britisher an an equally incomprehensible captain the American army wish to go out with the brigands-with these fierce Chinese mitted such terrible atrocities. What could be their reason? Could it be pos They must be the agents of some powe ries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise the same charcoal says of the same charcoal says of a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than on any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

ARTILLERY ENGAGED

Russians Bombarded Japanese Position South of Shakhe.

Siapanta, via Mukden, Dec. 30.—Russian artillery engaged in an actiling on Dec. 29 against the Lozenges in Some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges that in his saddle, firm and graceful in his seat from the waist upward. He stories ever read of brigands, of Malay pirates, and buccaneers, and as he jogs easily along is an object of study and comment for the almost disregarded foreigners behind. After some time passed in silence, during which several miles have been covered, from an almost hidden path a number of other horsemen, similarly attired to the one who is showing the strangers the road, join the party. The pace is increased to a rapid trot or amble, and just as night is descending the equestrians clatter into a village, whose walls show signs of rude It the ponies are unsaddled and fed. At first view it suggests a yamen of some importance. The walls around it are high, and the gate, new-painted and well-kept, is heavy enough to withstand a siege conducted without artillery. The double doors are at present slightly ajar, a massive chain holding them. There is calling on the part of the guide to those within, and after answers nave been received the visitors are informed that the must squeeze through the smull space between the link-held leaves. This accomplished, not without difficulty, they ccomplished, not without difficulty, they re led across a courtyard, at the other are led across a courtyard, at the are led across a courtyard, at the other side of which another strongly-guarded gate presents itself. There is no squeezing here, however, for it is promptly unbarred and thrown open. A third passage of the same kind effected, and the house, which seems like a citadely is reached. An ordinary Chinese nice admits to this, and the adventurers stand at last in the "Robbers' Den."

Presently the small crowd, questioningly regarding the new-comers, separates regarding the new-comers, separates and forms a lane through which a small keen-faced, clean-shaven, agile person passes into the room. The latter accepts th hand of each of his guests in both his own, and then sits down, with an air of calm but alert expectancy. This is shown by his eyes, which rapidly survey the counterpaces of these parts of the counterpaces of these parts. snown by his eyes, which rapidly survey the countenances of those before him, though his features remain motionless. Suddenly catching sight of the men at the door, he waves his hand, and silently, but hastily, they disappear. Small disobediences, rumor has it, merit death, and the men who follow his fortunes fear "When he arrived, in the haste of backing up, no one thought to tell im that we were not going back to he old residence. He drove away, and we came in on the cars and went is no smile according to the daring bandit. In reply to an expression of pleasure at having at last been granted an opportunity of visiting him, he responds that his humble roof is honored to receive such guests. But there is no smile accompanying the politenes He crosses and recrosses his feet, res lessly touches the table, strokes the fu foreigners."

'But the foreigners will be quite willing risk."
"He cannot." he repeats, "'take the responsibility." and tone and action signify that the subject must be finished. So it is left for the time being, and the great Chunchuse question broadly discussed. "It has been stated that eighty thousand irregulars are on the Russian rear to the north-east, and that ten thousand are similarly placed on the porth-west.

the north-east, and that ten thousand are similarly placed on the north-west ready to operate against the Muscovites as soon as ever an opportunity presents itself. Does he think it possible that there can be such large bodies of outlaws in Manchuria or on the borders?"

"Ten thousand altogether there may be; but not more."

"The Jananese have desired the use of "The Japanese have denied the Chunchuses in this war. Does he suspect that the denial is false?"
"He does not suspect—he knows. A Japanese officer, familiar among the Chinese as Wang-yin-yee, controls all the Mikado's Chinese. the Mikado's Chinese auxiliaries in the west. He is in continual conflict with the Russians. Then there is the affair at Kouportze, where it was sought to cap-ture Russian interpreters travelling on the Russian interpreters travelling on he train, and proved that a Japanese officer, disguised as a Chinaman, was brominent in the resultant fracas."

"That is the band of Ching-soo-san. But the Japanese officially disclaim all onnection with those of their officers becoming to their testing. nging to these banditti, and the latter have dispersed?"
"Ching-soo-san is a clever soldier and a favorite in high circles. He is at present serving the Japanese."
"But he will be punished for taking part in the war?"
"The Russians have similar bands on their side, though these are not of much ve dispersed?

r side, though these are not of much Why should Ching-soo-san be punthe office of Governor for the next two years.

IMPKISONMENT FOR LIFE.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 30.—Louis Haxer to-day was convicted of attempted murder and sentenced to the state prison at Jackson for life. In attempting to kill his wife in a local bakery on December 3, he shot two women and later shot a policeman who armony the state of the s "But are all those serving in this way nunchuses?"
"Their service makes them so: that is

And what about Gen. Ma?" the visi ors venture to ask.
"Gen. Ma," is the answer, "has 40,000
nen, but these for fighting are worthless. Their pay is insufficient to make them are to risk their lives. What are three and eight taels a month to soldiers, foot and horse, who as Chunchuses serving he Japanese can draw twelve and Patriotism is a strange word, the mean-ing of which it is impossible to explain to the interpreter, and which is therefore lost on the "King of the District." Then ost on the "King of the District." Then he subject of accompanying the bandits a 'n broached, but with no better result. He feigns not to understand the pure on regarding his own attitude in the par, and changes the subject by showing a sword with which he has been being-answered that its value is about $100. seems much displeased. He regards it with disapprobation, and, wrapping in its silken bands to preserve the polish ed sheath, puts it away without furthe remark. As the visitors rise to leave with much more cordiality than hithert displayed he's presses them to stay an order, and three glasses of port win are brought in, the flavor of which be speaks its age and quality. Then ou through the guarded doorway and gate now all thrown wide open—they pa accompanied by the chiefs. On to t waiting ponies they spring, and hast away back along the rugged, moon road.—A. G. Simpson, in the Lond

HURRICANE IN BELGIUM

Many Lives Lost and Much Damage to Property.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.) t Brussels, Dec. 30.-Many persons were killed or injured in Belgium by Langdon would appear as a presente #### aused much damage to property. SAID NOTHING NEW

Premier Ross Makes a Speech at Toronto Banquet.

(By Special G. N.-W. Wire.) Toronto, Dec. 30.—There were about repudiated. "But that repudiated must be made in a formal statement to tendered to-night to Premier Ross. Dan A. Rose occupied the chair. The Premier spoke for an hour and twenty minutes on the issues of the campaign, but, although the speech was well delivered something strange about the entire proceedings and Lam not qualified to exceedings and Lam not qualified to exand loudly applauded, there was noth-ing in it particularly new. Hon. John Dryden also spoke.

THE SULTAN YIELDS

Dismissal of the French Vice-Consu at Fez, Morocco, Cancelled.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.) Paris, Dec. 31 .- According to a despatch from Tangier to the Figaro he Sultan of Morocco has received M. Kuillard, the French vice-consul at Fez, and informed him that the dismissal of the French military mis-sion had been cancelled. At the same time, the Sultan urged that the lomatic mission of St. Rene Taillan-dier (the French minister to Morocco) start at once for Fez.

SHOT FOUR MEN

Workman Defends With a Revolver.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.) Indiana Harbor, Ind., Dec. 36.—Four men to-night were shot and slightly in-jured by Frederick Kroner, an employed of the American Steel and Wire Co Kroner, who is an expert workman, habeen of late doing extra work, and hi fellow workmen demanded that he per form no more than the rest of them He refused to do as they wished, an itensight when a number of employee. ere standing on the depot platform Indiana Harbor, some of them attacked Kroner. He drew a revolver and com-menced to shoot indiscriminately, wound-ing four men. Kroner was arrested.

ABNORMALLY HIGH TIDES Serious Inundations in the Low-lying

Parts of London.

(By Special C. P. R. Wire.) London, Dec. 31.-Yesterday's gale esulted in an abnormal high tide on he eastern coast of England and in he Thames estuary, producing serious loods in the low-lying parts of London, where hundreds of warehouse and residences were inundated, and serious damage was done. It was the highest tide at London for many years, the water almost oversweeping the Thames embankment, and the steps of the Cleopatra's Needle being cov

O. H. A. EXECUTIVE

Places Marlboros in Good Standing and Suspends Belleville Players.

(By Special G. N. W. Wire). Toronto, Dec. 30,-At the meeting o he O. H. A. Executive to-night, th champion Marlboros presented satisfactory affidavits and the club was leclared in good standing. Hammel and McDonald, of Brockville, who contracted to play in the professional eague, were suspended, as was also E. J. Schaeffer, of the Midland team. Whitcroft, of the same team, was given permission to play. Robt. Gray, of the St. George's, was branded an mateur. The committee recommended that in future years no change of resi dence permits be granted. At Pittsburg, Pa., to-day-Toronto 'Varsity beat Yale 3 to2.

THE ECCLESIAS-TICAL SCANDAL

Some of the Signers Said to Have Repudiated the Presentment.

Huntingdon, Pa., Dec. 30.-There o abatement here in the interest he controversy between Dr. Irvine and Bishop Talbot, of the Central Pennsylvania diocese. Especial inter est was taken in the statements of some of the local presenters that they had unwittingly signed the presen whose name is on the presentment came out with a statement to-day which he says: "When the subject of a review of the case was first broache to me it was in the shape of a nicelyworded letter from Dr. Irvine to Mr. Hillier. The letter asked that a rehas broken fairly in two amidships view of the controversy be petitioned for, with the idea of an amicable settlement of the differences between Bishop Talbot and Dr. Irvine. For the so high that wrecking tugs and barges interview here to-day. The people sake of the church Mr. Langdon and which had been sent out to lighte myself thought it would be best to the cargo could not approach her erationists, though they were unques-have the case reviewed." have the case reviewed." Mrs. Elliott appeared to be pleased vorable conditions.

The last leaf is torn from the calendar, and we write down a new year, 1905, and we begin where we left off. But we begin right. There will be no step backward. Within the year your store has grown in volume and prestige, and commands increased respect. In wishing you and thanking you for our growth and prosperity, we promise better thingsimprovements in merchandise, methods and store service. Your store shall be something better than a place to hand out goods and take in money. May the New Year be kind, and when Time shall? harvest 1905 may we all be here and able to say: "HAPPY NEW YEAR."

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

when she learned that some of the SEE DATES BELOW. Huntingdon signers had the presenment. "I knew there wa something wrong about the proc she exclaimed, "and I do think they will have much difficulty finding the source of the trouble thought it was strange that Joi a terrific hurricane to-day, which also of charges against the bishop who confirmed him only last spring and J. Y. EGAN, Specialist, 192 West King St. P.O. 539, Toronto. whom he entertained at his home Harry W. Petriken, mayor of thi city, and one of the witnesses called o the Keading inquiry, was the attorney for Dr. Irvine in the church and in civil trials here. He says he does not see how the inquiry can proceed if the names of any of the signers are repudiated. "But that repudiation

ceedings and I am not qualified to express an opinion until I learn me The case of the Frenchman who felt

> THE MOST RELIABLE and Successful Authority—Greatest success in the treatment of Hernia (Rupture) Varicocele (False Rupture) of all known agencies in modern times. He who makes a Rupture) Varicocele (False Rupture) of all known agencies in modern times. He who makes a pecialty of one department must certainly be more experienced and capable than those having many irons in the fire." Bon't put off your case, believing it to be simple—Remember neglection proves fatal. Have your case attended to now, and thus avoid danger. Stop wasting time and money elsewhere but come to one whose life-long study has taught him what to do. Do not espond or be deterred from seeking further advice, or because of repeated failures consider you see incurable. Because others failed in your case you have become discouraged. This is the very me you should consult me as my reputation has been made in curing hopeless (so-called) cases.
>
> LADIES suffering from Navel or any form of Rupture should not hesitate in having their use attended to at once. Everything strictly private and professional.
>
> MOTHERS—Lock to your children—Now is the time to have them cured, while young, our tallow them to grow up handicapped in the race of life, with rupture.

> > There is no other affliction to

MY CHARGES are within reach of a

SPECIALIST WILL VISIT:

LONDON, GRIGG HOUSE, All Day and Evening, Saturday, Jan. 7

Retiring From Business

Balance of $35,000 Stock Must be Sold

Sale to continue till all is cleared out. Store open from 8 a. m. till 6 p. m. All goods not in stock can be ordered, and if not satisfactory need not be taken.

The Goods of Joseph Rodgers & Sons, England, in Celluloid and Ivory-handled Knives.

Gents' Waltham Watch, in a gold-filled case, guaranteed 20 years, regular $12.00, for.... $6.75

Just Received a Large Stock of 1847 Rogers Bros.' H1 Goods.

8-day Clock, half heur strike, $3.50, for...... $2.00 1847 Rogers Bros.' Tea Spoons, A1, per dozen... $2.25 1847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, A1, per dozen..... $3.35 Lemaire's Opera Glasses, regular price $5.00... $3.25 Alarm Clock, regular price $1.00, for...... 60¢ Gents' Gold-filled Hunting Case Watch, warranted to wear 20 years, with Waltham or Elgin movement......$10.00

D. Birtwistle,

116 Dundas Street.

Toronto, Dec. 30,-"We wish to reour fault; it will be forced upon us," said Senator Choquette, the Liberal organizer for the Quebec district, in an Quebec, he said, were not imperial fed-for Lord Dundonald's advice both hands on the Union Jack, and favored a measure of treaty-making powers for Canada, nor would this weaken the ties between the mother country and colony. The Senator said he people of Quebec were opposed to Chamberlain's policy.

Wash greasy dishes, pots or pan Lever's Dry Soap a powder. did not think there was any necessity wove the grease with the great