OPPOSITION PROMISED.

To THE EDITOR :-- I notice that in your report upon the death of Mr. Cohen you quote one of our city druggists as having said : " . The prohibition of the sale of other poisons to persons without a doo tor's certificate does not apply to laudanum." In order that there should be no misappre-hension on this point permit me to say, that section 18 of the B. C. Pharmacy act pro-hibits the sale of all opium preparations, ex-<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> section 18 of the B. C. Pharmacy set pro-hibits the sale of all opium preparations, ex-copt paregoric and syrup of poppies. This, therefore, does not permit the sale of landa-num without a doctor's certificate, or the party being known to the seller, and both seller and buyer signing the poison book kept for that purpose. THE SALE OF LAUDANUM.

OPENING OF THE ASCOT MEETING. ASCOT, England, June 18. - This was the first day of the Ascot meeting and all true sportsmen were disappointed when it was announced that Mr. Richard Groaker's Eau de Gaillie, formerly U ica, was soratched for the trial stakes. For that evant there were ealy three runners, and the result was as follows : Mr J. Best's Worcester, 1 : Mr. T. Jennings' Sonvenit, 2 ; Mr. Daniel Cooper's Jack the Dandy, 3 To add to the disappointment, Mr. Dwyer's Banquet H was soratched for the Ascot stakes, for which prize nine horses started. Following was the result : Captain Mitchell's Ravens-bury, 1 ; M T. Niguet's Sanch's Ravens-bury, 1 ; M T. Niguet's Sancho Panza, 2 ; Mr. W N. Redfern's Fatherless, 3 THE SECOND DAY AT ASCOT.

THE SECOND DAY AT ASCOT. THE SECOND DAY AT ASOOT. Asoot, June 19.—The second day of the Asoot meeting was marred by rain and cloudy weather, and the attendance in con-sequence was largely reduced. Those who made their way to the Heath through the inclement weather were disappointed on learning that all the American horses en-tered for to-day's races had been soratohed. There were twenty starters for the Royal Hunt cup over the new mile (7 furlongs and 166 yards) Mr. A F Basett's Clorine won, Victor Wild, 2; Irish Car 3.
