MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 1898. AN ABSURD THREAT.

The Post-Intelligencer thinks that if the Dominion government should close the passes the United States government would put insurmountable diffiof goods up the Stickine. Once more we suggest to our contemporary the desirability of reading the Treaty of Washington before attempting to define the powers of its government in the premises. By this treaty the right to the free tion of the railway from the Stickine navigation of several rivers, the Stickine river to Lake Teslin are announced. The among them, is provided for. Some of chief features of them are: The conted States citizens where they flow forward to completion by March 10 a ever to say that licenses can be obtained cupation by Germany of this harbor. per of Canadians, perhaps they will be through Canada, others are opened to winter road from the mouth of the there. the use of British subjects where they Stickine to Teslin lake. The right of customs officers at Wrangel to interfere with goods in transit to Canada was illustrated last year in a the Colonist in regard to the issuing of case where some tins of opium were miners' certificates in the British Columbeing taken up the Stickine for some Chinamen. The collector at Wrangel at once released the opium. This is the law of the United States and of every other civilized nation, and there is not the least reason to suppose that it will be altered in respect to the Alaskan | Colonist, Victoria: frontier.

We believe that the application of this rule to the carriage of goods from ports the Stickine, without being subject to toris and Vancouver were specified, the materially altered. elsewhere, the action of the provincial government was an outrage. By the same reasoning, if the Dominion governoutrage. But the Dominion government five years only. The Dominion exacts one per cent. for royalty; the provincial government exacts one-half per cent. royalty in addition to all other taxes that may be imposed, a rental of $50 per annum for each claim, $100 for each transfer of a claim and the usual stumpage on timber. Here then is a uestion in political arithmetic: If the Cassiar Central arrangement is an outrage, how shall the Mackenzie & Mann contract be described?

THE opposition press have charged the government, individually and collectvely, with incompetency and dishonesty. The Colonist has taken the case of one minister, the Chief Commissioner of the great expenditures made under his direction and the great interests in his charge have been administered so that not a single scandal or charge of extravagance has been made. Now the opposition press say that it is a poor commendation. May we ask them to say what they meant when they talked which these words are used in British Columbia politics? As we understand corruption, it means that some one has profited illegitimately at the expense of the public, and as we understand incompetency it means that the men who are charged with administering affairs do not know how to administer them. If they mean anything else, will the opposition press tell us what it is?
