Trade is quiet and dull, with no indidication

Trade is quiet and duli, with no indidications of any improvement so long as the excitemen ever futures in the Chicago markets continues. Flour.—Dull and unchanged. To-day's quotations are $5.25 to $5.50; straight rollers, $4.00 to $5. stras, $4.00 to $5.50. Bran.—Quiet at $14.50 per ton.
Middlings.—$18 per ton.
Wheat.—There is no change to note. Farmers offerings are very light and there is very little disposition shown to buy heavily. These prices are quoted: At Toronto—No. 2 fall, $1.08; No. 2 red, $1.10; No. 2 spring, $1.08. On Midland.—No. 2 fall, $1.08; No. 2 red, $1.10; No. 2 spring, $1.08. On Midland.

No. 2 fall, $1.08; No. 2 red, $1.07; No. 2 spring, $1.05. Grand Trunk west points—No. 2 fall, $1.03; No. 2 red, $1.02; No. 2 spring, none offering.

Hamilton Spectator (by the way, what an immense descent from the original Spectator of Addison), for the purpose, of sneering at what he is pleased to call in his editorial stupidity "Italian statesmen." If his knowledge of the people of Italy extended beyond a mere casual acquaintance with a chance organ grinder or two he would very soon be made aware that instead of slurring the men of the convolument indeed. It is more than likely that up to this instant he never had any idea of the debt of gratitude we English-speaking people owe to these selfsame Italians. If he hasn't I would advise him to spend a week or two in the study of Italian history. He would have to use a translation no doubt, seeing that he is one of those editors who advocate "no language but English." After that a course of Burke and Lecky would be very helpful in the way of enlarging his understanding and instilling the notion in his mind that the practice of sneering at the Irish is not by any means an indication of culture or understanding, not to say decency.

OTTAWA, April 1.-Hon, John Henry Pope linister of Railways and Canals, died about irly expected, hope for other than a fatal John Macdonald at the House of Commons. The Premier was visibly affected as he read the brief contents of the note handed him by the page, and it was apparent to all that some grief had befallen him. Sir John at once ssed the House and communicated the news his sent when, noticing the frail, trembling form of Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, he considerate-The public intimation was not made to the House for about half an hour, Mr. Eisenhauer of grief, and communicated the fact in trembling tones. "It is my melancholy duty," he said, "to announce the decease of the Honorable John Henry Pope, my friend and col league. Though not unexpected the blow is so severe, now that it has fallen, that I am not able to say more at present. As the memb

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier seconded the motion in a few simple words. The death not being unexpected the grief was not so harrowing, he said, as in the case of a young life unexpectedly cut short. All would agree, he thought, that it was no ordinary or common life which had just been terminated. As the members would have another opportunity of paying a tribute to the worth of the deceased he would say no more at present.

Hon, Peter Mitchell also spoke briefly.

declared that in passing out of the Cabine Hon. Mr. Pope had left not a man in a superior to himself in a certain line. The House adjourned at 5.45 until 3 o'cloc A Long and Hopeless Illness.

Dr. Osler, formerly of Montable to the new of Philadelphia, who had se strattend Dr. Howard's funeral, was amound to Ottawa to consult with Drs. right and Powell, the physicians in attandate on Mr. Pope. When he arrived he found at the passage conveying the bile from the smaoli to the liver was stopped and that the mass of obstruction could not be removed.

Yesterday afternoon the patient took inverse child and thereafter failed rapidly. The ser approach of death becoming a certainty in family gathered round to bid a lust adject the service of the serv

Mr. Pope passed quietly away shortly after 5 clock, being half unconscious at the last. He had been confined to his room for about six weeks, though the illness to which he has succumbed has been for years gaming the mastery over him. He has borne himself thrort bout with great fortitude, making light of all his sufferings.

The interment will take place at Cookshire, Que, the depassed's family residence. The cortege will leave by special Canadian Paolic Railway train to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the burnel will be on Wednesday afternoon. At Ottawa the service will be gead by Rev. H. Pollard of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Erica Sketch of the Bend Minister's Public Career.

[Hon, John Henry Pope, Minister of Railways and Canals for the Dominion of Canada, M.P. for Compton, was born in 1824, and received his educational training in the High School at Compton, P. Q. The earlier period of his life was directed to agricultural pursuits. Mr. Pope was fond of military life and took a lively interest in the volunteer movement. He commanded the Cookshire Volunteer Cavairy for many years, and relired in 1862, rotaining his raik as major. He was president of the Intercolonial Railway Company of Maine, and also of the Compton Colonization Society. He took a deep interest in education, and for many years has been a trustee of St. Francis College, Richmond, P. Q. He was also a director of the Eastern Township Bank. In 1854, at his general election of that year, Mr. Pope offered himself as a candidate for the Legislative Assembly of Canada for Compton, and was defeated; but in 1857 he succeeded in 2 arrying his election and sat in this Logislature until the union of the provinces under confederation. He was then elected a member of the House of Commons by acclamation, and had been returned wer since by his old friends each time he appealed for their suffrages. On Oct. 25, 1871, 1809, Mr. Pope was sworn in a member of the Pholos caudal question in November, 1872, when he relived with his lender. On the return of his party to power, on the detent of the Mackenzie Administration, he was, on Oct. 17, 1878, reinstanted into the old office of Minister of Agriculture, and this office he held until the defeat of the Mackenzie Administration, he was, on Oct. 17, 1878, reinstanted into the old office of Minister of Agriculture, and the old office of Minister of Agriculture, and the old office of Minister of Agriculture and the old office of Minister of Agriculture, and the old office of Minister of Agriculture and the
