

T. EATON CO., (LIMITED)

Store closes to-day at 5 O'CLOCK and every day except Saturday, when we close at 1.

Plenty of Everything:

This business is big enough to comprehend almost every worthy thing that's worth your while.

If you're going camping or to some fashionable hotel we can supply every possible need. Big variety of goods here to choose from and nothing overlooked for which there is a demand.

Cheap Groceries:

It's a revelation to most people—the way we're selling groceries.

An instance of that the other day when we sold good coffee at 20 cents, good tea at 18 cents and canned vegetables at 5 cents.

Didn't take long to clear the counters at those prices and yet similar bargains are cropping up all the time.

Come often and watch your chances. Groceries are cheaper here than elsewhere. Accept that for a fact.

Tuesday Morning:

These goods go on sale.
No need to say much beyond that. Those who get here at 8 o'clock to-morrow will get first choice of—

- Pillow Cases, with 21-2 inch cambric fill, sizes 44, 46, 48 inch wide, at 23c

Other departments are clamoring for mention but the news can wait. Every day will have new attractions and business will continue to centre around brand new goods at special prices.
Watch the papers and shop as early each day as you possibly can.

Mail Orders:

Bigger business than ever.
More customers and more inducements to bring you here past all the other stores.
Mail orders filled promptly and samples of sampleable goods sent free to any address. Give the system a trial.

THE T. EATON CO., (LIMITED)

190 YONGE ST. - TORONTO, ONT.
ONTARIO LADIES' COLLEGE, WHITBY, ONT.

About $35,000 are being spent this summer in new buildings, new steam-heating, electric lighting, etc., placing the college property in advance of that of any similar institution in this country. The work done by students in University and departmental examinations is unequalled.
The musical department is on a thorough secretary basis, and is being strengthened by the addition of a new pipe organ, to be driven by electricity.
The fine arts, elocution and commercial departments are equally efficient. College opens SEPTEMBER 9. Send for catalogue and apply for room to REV. J. J. HARR, Ph.D., Principal.

THE PAN-AMERICAN FIZZLE.

The so-called Pan-Americans have done nothing themselves nor this city any credit. They led us to believe that "Congress" was to be attended by ten thousand delegates and that celebrities in all walks of life were to be present and speak words of wisdom to the multitudes. As a matter of fact the Congress has been more or less of a fizzle.
We do not blame the leaders of the movement for the failure of the Congress to have more or less of a fizzle. But attendance or to have present any celebrated speakers. But what the public has a right to charge against them is the publication of false representations from time to time in regard to the affairs. On the strength of these representations the city was induced to vote the Pan-American Congress a grant of money. The hotels and many private residences went to needless trouble in anticipation of a large number of guests being present in the city during the past and present weeks. But what seems to prove more than anything else the insincerity of the promoters of this Congress is the fact that they announced on Friday night that they were subjecting the city to a surprise attack by audience in Massey Hall, when as a matter of fact it was known to these promoters that the gentlemen in question could not be present. In this particular they were guilty of such deliberate misrepresentation as would justify anyone in refusing to place the least confidence in anything that they have done. We have very little hesitation in calling the Congress a fizzle. While the promoters of this Congress are misrepresenting the city, the greatest import to humanity, including religion, they were all the time hum-bugging the public.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF CHRISTIANITY.

The historian of the future will be in possession of facts not available to us today, upon which to form an estimate of the character of the people of this city. Mr. Oliver Mowat, the records of the County of Cathlamet are diligently searched they will no doubt reveal facts that will shed an abundant light on the antecedents of the people of this city.
Even the curious remarks of the Provost who received Sir Oliver as Burgess of the Royal Burg of Wick gives us valuable information as to the stock from which the Mowat family is descended.
It tells us that the Mowat family is of considerable antiquity. In the year 1316, in the reign of King Robert Bruce, the name William Mowat appears in the list of Scottish nobles who sent a message to the Pope formally maintaining the independence of Scotland. The civilizing influence of time are manifest in the changes that have been effected in the character of the Mowat of today.
Instead of opposing the Pope, we find Sir Oliver Mowat and his wife the Pope's representative in Ontario. Some time in the fifteenth century the Mowat of that time repaired and inhabited Buchellie Castle, the stronghold of fierce pirates.
The castle was bold and strong, and from an anvil that defied the Pope and fought the pirate chiefs who should hardly have expected to see such a descendant as Sir Oliver Mowat, the personification of everything that is innocent and childlike, Christianity, indeed, a great factor in civilization, and one of the greatest evidences thereof is Sir Oliver Mowat himself.

MAIL HAYHURST!

The Canadian carmen and riflemen ought to receive, as they will receive, a unanimous and hearty welcome on their return home. The Argonauts, it is true, were defeated, but their defeat was so close, and the victory that we at least ought to put them on the shoulders and say, "Well done, boys!" If they do not bring home with them the Stewards' Challenge Cup they have not sacrificed enough. The same thing cannot be said of the Cornell crew that will return from Henley not only without a trophy, but without the honor that should belong to all amateur sportsmen. No journal in Canada was so diligent in its efforts to over the conduct of the Toronto crew in the same way that Harper's Weekly laments the blunder of the Cornell eight.
"It is the spirit of the law," says Harper, "that makes the difference between professional and amateur sportsmen." But it is Hayhurst's victory at Bixley that Canadians will especially celebrate on the return of the Canadian rifle team.
His victory is complete. The Hamilton private comes home with the highest honor, and he is being strongly received at a camp where the honors to be won are many and enviable. Hayhurst's appearance in Canada will be attended with the same spontaneous overtures that greeted him on Saturday at Bixley when he was declared the winner of the Queen's Prize. He deserves a grand reception. He will receive it.
Hayhurst!

A CASE FOR INVESTIGATION.

When a man is suspected and known to be a thief, it is not the custom of the detective department to leave the door of a jewelry store unlocked at night in order to trap the thief and capture him. Or if a man is known to be a disturber of the peace, it is not the policy of the law to dispatch a policeman in plain clothes to pick a quarrel with him so as to get a case against him in the Police Court. But it is suspected that a petty dealer in tobacco or cigars sells any such article on Sunday, that does Inspector Archibald deem it to be his duty to set a trap to inveigle the suspected party. Last Sunday week a mission of the Inspector's, disguised in civilian's clothes, went to the little store of a blind tobaccoist, named Wilson, 678 Queen-street west, and, on the pretence that he was a friend named Smith, induced Wilson to sell him two cigars.

John Burke, an old pensioner, with a little store at 504 King street, was also suspected of selling tobacco on Sunday.
Both were found guilty of a violation of the Lord's Day Act. Mr. Murphy suggested to the magistrate who heard the cases that the Inspector who gave the informers their instructions, together with the informers themselves, should be indicted for conspiracy. Archibald should not only be indicted for conspiracy, but he should be speedily removed from office. Archibald is the very worst kind of man who could be put in charge of the police force. He is vindictive, he is petty, he is over zealous, he is incompetent. If our Sunday laws are respected so well that the police cannot detect any open violation of them, we think they are justified in enforcing them. To defiance the law is not a very heinous offence, even on a Sunday. Inspector Archibald is without any straightforward independent evidence that the parties in question are guilty of a violation of the law. He is a forward witness, in the ordinary course of affairs, purchased cigars or tobacco on Sunday. These two citizens only violated the law when they were subjected to the surprise attack of the Inspector Archibald. By all means let Archibald be tried for conspiracy. He is the chief offender in these cases. There would have been no violation of the law out for him. His business is to see that the laws are enforced, not to defiance them. He is a forward witness, in the ordinary course of affairs, pur-
