Sunday School Convention on the 29th.

Miss Lizzie Feltus went to Halifax last week for a few days.

Miss Etta Wheelock is visiting in Boston.

Miss Bertha Hall is visiting in Halifax for a few weeks.

F. A. Mulhall has opened a general furnishing store in the Stevens building.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schaffner welcomed a son on the 15th.

Miss Vance, of Halifax, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. C. Hall last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowell, of Lunenburg, have been visiting in town here the past week.

Mr. J. J. Vennart went to Halifax on Monday to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Basia Dennis.

Miss Nellie Whitman, of Boston, is the guest of her brother, Frank Whitman.

W. C. Marshall has been home for a week.

A Sunday School Convention of District No. 2 meets here on the 29th.

Mr. Muirhead and other noted workers and speakers will be present and a good and interesting program is assured, and the prospects are that it will be the largest convention ever held in this county. All interested in Sabbath school work should make plans to be present. Remember the 29th.

Mr. Foster, of East Boston, Mass., is the guest of his brother, E. C. Foster.

F. Fitch, Esq., returned Monday from his trip to England. He has been a great success on his trip.

Dusty streets and sleighing all in one week! Who says our climate is changeable?

Rev. Jos. Galt is holding special meetings at First Church.

John Hall has sold his horse "Fred Slipp" to parties in Yarmouth.

Spring must be here! Base ball is the sport now, and our local fishermen are planning their trips to the south water.

TUPPERVILLE.

Miss Ethel Brooks, who spent the winter at home with her parents, has returned to the States, where she intends remaining during the remainder of the year.

Mr. Aubrey Wallace left on Saturday for Boston, in which city he has decided to live.

Mr. S. T. Chipman, who left for Boston last Saturday week, returned to his home on Saturday, after completing his business upon which he was called away.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks, who returned home from the States a fortnight ago, left for Boston on Saturday, in company with his son Herbert, where they will join forces in business.

Mr. T. B. Chipman is away in the south-west of the province on his usual spring tour. He is not expected home for another week or ten days.

We are pleased to inform our readers that Miss Elliott, the guest of Mrs. Howard E. Bent, this week, is recovering from the severe attack of pneumonia.

One stage of her illness her condition was very grave.

Miss Burgess, of Boston, arrived here on Saturday on a spring visit to her aunt, Miss Elliott (above mentioned), and may return to the States on Wednesday.

Now that the river flows on in its accustomed manner, and the ice (which has served as an excellent bridge during the winter) has departed, we hope, almost immediately, to see the familiar forms of the fishermen at work.

The weather for this class of sport is yet cold, and perhaps there are not in the meantime, many fish in the river.

By the end of the month, however, we are hoping to have the felicity of enjoying a fine fish catch. I wonder is the Editor fond of this fish?

Ans.—Yes, bones and all.—Ed.

DEEP BROOK.

Mrs. Crosby and daughter Miss Mabel have returned home from the United States.

About five inches of "the beautiful" fell here on Saturday, manifesting a severe kind in the back-bone of one winter.

Messrs. W. Purdy and Robt. Spurr, appointed a committee by the Union Agricultural Society to purchase two thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey pigs.

The first of last week for that purpose. They bought one from Mr. Richard Starr, of Starr's Point, and one from Armstrong Bros., Church St., Kentville. All who have had the pleasure of seeing these two animals pronounce them A1, and we have no doubt but that the result will be satisfactory improvement of stock in Deep Brook and our sister village Clementsport.

A telegram from Lynn, Mass., received April 19th, announces the death of John A. Vroom, at the home of his son, J. A. Vroom, of that city.

Mr. Vroom has resided at Deep Brook until last fall, when he and his wife went to spend the winter with their sons at Lynn. He was born Oct. 16, 1831. He married Mary Jane Chute, sister of the late H. H. Chute, M.P.

His direct relatives are two sons, Arthur W. and James R., at Deep Brook, and one sister, Mrs. Flanders, living in the States. Also two sons, A. V. and E. V., of Lynn, contractors, and five daughters, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Churchill, and youngest daughter, Jessie, unmarried. Remains will be brought home Saturday.

BELLEVILLE.

Mr. A. Clifford Bent is spending a few days with friends at Torbrook.

Councillor L. D. Giesse goes to Middleton to-day to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Council which meets there tomorrow (Tuesday).

We are very sorry to learn that our old and esteemed citizen, Capt. Geo. A. Cover, of Centre Granville, is at the time of writing very seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Bent are receiving congratulations. (A boy.)

Mr. Israel P. Longley, who has been visiting his relatives in the western part of the county, came home last week. He informed us he spent a most pleasant day with his venerable and aged relatives, Major Milroy Harris and wife. We were pleased indeed to learn that the general old Major and his most estimable "better half," although both have some years ago passed the eightieth mark on the road of life, were still in the full enjoyment of the "best gift of God to man."

Mr. Sylvester Bent, our bustling undertaker, informed your correspondent when he got his winter's logging all saved he would clean up over a million feet.

CLEMENS TOWN.

Mr. Benjamin Dukeshire visited his former home at Matland last week.

Mrs. Ella Chute, of Cornwallis, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Potter.

Mr. Geo. E. Beeler is at Bridgewater on a business trip.

Miss Lottie Munroe and Miss Anna M. Beeler of Clementsport, are visiting friends in this and the neighboring vicinities.

The many friends of Mr. Frank Brown are glad to see him at home after an absence of several years. Mr. Arthur Brown is also at home. They all spent a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown.

NEW ALBANY.

April 14th.

Wedding bells are ringing.

Mrs. George Woodbury gave an "at home" to her young friends of South Albany on Friday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. Edward Zwickler, of Haverhill, Mass., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. D. Vinot.

To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mallman, March 20th, a daughter. Congratulations.

Mr. Charles McKewen, of Lawrence town, spent Sunday the guest of Mr. Albert Oakes.

We are sorry to report Mr. E. Kniffin no better.

Miss Hannah is visiting her friend, Miss Jessie McKimmon.

Rev. J. A. Ramsay, of Middleton, held service at South Albany on Sunday, the 10th. Five converts were received into the Presbyterian church.

Miss Jessie Paine is the guest of Mrs. J. Mallman.

Miss Edith Burns, who spent the Easter holidays at Halifax, has returned home.

Messrs. Leon and Clyde Vennart visited their sister, Mrs. Otto Wile of Bridgewater.

Mrs. Dora M. Kniffin returned from Bridgewater, where she has been visiting friends.

GRANVILLE FERRY.

Mrs. Mackinlay and Miss Mackinlay, of Glasgow, are guests of Mrs. Fletcher Reed.

G. Quintan Warner, of Kings College, was the guest of Mrs. Sutherland last week.

W. E. Turpin, Manager of the Union Bank of Halifax, has been promoted to the position of relieving officer. Mr. E. R. McDaniel, of Bridgewater, assumes the management here.

E. H. Armstrong is in Halifax this week attending the annual session of the Church of England Synod.

Arch Parker, for some time connected with J. L. Shadler's grocery, is leaving to take the position of turner on the S. S. Granville, soon to be placed on the route between Bridgewater and St. John.

The village was shocked on Saturday morning to hear of the death of Mrs. Haycock (nee Hall) of Wolfville. Mrs. Haycock was a universal favorite in Granville, and besides a husband and son, leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Hall and Mrs. Fred Troop, to mourn her early death.

The street commissioners have lately procured several concrete loads of beach gravel for use on the streets. The improvement is already felt.

NICTAUX.

April 12th.

Rev. C. H. Haverstock and Joseph N. North are laid up with the grippe.

It is proposed to build a horse shed at the Nictaux meeting house.

We have another freeze, just now. The frost is out and the roads are drying up.

Messrs. Ezra and Charles Medcroft have recently visited their sister, Mrs. George Connell.

Mrs. Charles Connell expects to go to Lunenburg, Yarmouth Co., on Friday, 15th, where she will join her husband.

Mr. E. Zwickler was lately the guest of his sister, Mrs. David Vennart.

ALBANY.

Mr. Elbert Whitman has gone out West to engage in the teaching profession.

Mrs. Phineas Whitman spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. H. J. Andrews of Berwick and Mrs. Alfred Whitman of Waterville.

Mrs. E. A. Merry and Miss Dora Kniffin spent Easter at Bridgewater.

We are sorry to report Mr. Enoch Colquhoun no better.

OBITUARY.

STODDART.

It is with feelings of sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mrs. John Stoddart, of Stoddartville, Annapolis Co., who departed this life March 30, 1904, aged 73 years and 9 months.

Deceased was the youngest daughter of Charles and Louisa Stoddart, and the last survivor of a family of nine children, seven daughters and two sons. Her parents lived in honor to be among the first families to settle in New Albany, Annapolis Co. In the year 1829, Mr. John Stoddart took his bride to his present home at Stoddartville, and during thirty years of a happy married life, Mrs. Stoddart not only graced the home and helped to strengthen the material bulwark of the home, but also ministered to the needs of a host of friends as they journeyed from one part of the province to the other. Ministers of almost all denominations have shared the comfort and hospitality of her home.

To her bereaved husband she was ever an affectionate and thoughtful wife, while to the four daughters and three sons, who mourn their loss, she was a mother, a friend, and a faithful mother. Every mental, physical and spiritual gift was unostentatiously and upon the family altar good of all. The last six years of her life have been spent under trying circumstances. Bodily weakness and impaired mental faculties have made her the constant care of a patient husband, and a thoughtful son and a daughter-in-law. Through all the years she bore her sickness without murmur or a complaint.—Com.

CHESLEY.

On Friday, 16th inst., at Pine Grove, Middleton, Wm. H. Chesley entered to rest, surrounded by his devoted daughters, Mrs. (Capt.) Wm. E. Johnson, Mrs. C. N. Phillips, Mrs. C. H. Phinney, Mrs. C. H. Lowell and Miss Lottie Chesley, who have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their overwhelming sorrow.

Only five weeks since the beloved wife and mother was suddenly called "up higher," and now the heart-broken husband and father has joined her, whom his soul loved. Lovingly and pleasantly in their lives, and in their death not divided.

Wm. H. Chesley, the only son of the late Samuel and Rachel Durling Chesley, was born at Pine Grove, Middleton, in 1827. Faithful and devoted as a son, a husband and a father, he was equally so in every relation of life, just and charitable in all his dealings.

Of a large family only two sisters survive him, Mrs. Joseph Palmer of Spa Springs, and Mrs. John Robinson of Nictaux. One sister, Mrs. Eliza Vroom, predeceased him only a few weeks.

While he and his noble-hearted wife rest from their labors, the lives they have blessed and the good they have done will live on, and God's love will enter into the joy of their Lord.

Mr. Chesley was sixth in line of descent from Philip Chesley, the immigrant ancestor who came from near Dover, England, and was one of the founders of Dover, New Hampshire, in 1642. Benjamin Chesley, the grandfather, followed on older brother, Samuel, from New Hampshire to Nova Scotia, about 1783 or 1782, and there were the pioneers of successful orchard planting in eastern Annapolis.—Com.

A young man named Alex. Nicholson, while crossing from Pictou to P. E. I., in the steamer Minto, died of the typhoid fever on the 15th inst. An effort was made to reach his home, but he sank before it reached him.
