

This, it is alleged, is the very palace to which our Lord was taken from the house of Annas, and where he was arraigned before the court of the Sanhedrim. The trouble 's, that the identifications are so minute and circumstantial as to throw discredit on the whole affair. The monks not only show the place where Peter denied his Master, but also the very stone on which the cock crew thrice before the apostate disciple had completed his miserable apostacy.

TREE OF JUDAS.
