

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO MARKET—August 5, 1899.

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

NO OPENINGS HIGHER—TENDENCY TO LOWER VALUATIONS.

Chicago, August 5.

Openings to-day were in all classes of grain and of provisions, except flour, lower than yesterday's close. September wheat $\frac{1}{4}$ less, tending lower; December wheat, no change in opening and no movement towards higher or towards lower prices apparent. September and December corn $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ lower opening, September inclining upwards, December alternating between strength and weakness. The movement in oats was towards lower values from openings for September oats the same as previous close, and for December oats $\frac{1}{2}$ lower.

Pork was all 5 cents lower at opening and moved at once down 2 or 3 cents. Lard took up the running just where it stopped yesterday and then advanced and receded in price without making any change one way or other towards or away from higher valuations. For the first time in a long period Jan. Lard was sold, but kept oscillating about the price it opened with. Short Ribs, both September and December varieties opened 2 cents lower and had a slight downward tendency in the early part of the day.

Curb wheat 69 $\frac{1}{2}$, curb corn 30 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 28 $\frac{1}{2}$. Hogs received, 21,000; cattle, 2,000; sheep 1,000. At Kansas—2,000 hogs, 500 cattle, Omaha—7,000 hogs, 200 cattle.

Car lots received—Wheat 76, corn 341, oats 355; shipments 21,000, 367,461, 235,475.

On passage to Great Britain this week—Wheat 2,670,000 qrs., or 21,360,000 bushels, and half as much corn.

It is a curious fact that from India, where famine is reported, there was on passage to Britain and to the Continent this week, 1,128,000 bushels of wheat. Weather reports to-day are: North-West, cloudy and warmer; West and South-West (Nebraska), cloudy, general rain; North Platte, rainfall: Omaha, continuous rain; Iowa, cloudy, general rain.
