The Law of Bills of Exchange AND Promissory Notes.

Being an Annotation of "The Bills of Exchange Act, 1890."

BY

EDWARD H. SMYTHE, LL.D.

Containing also the AMENDMENTS passed by the Dominion Parliament August 28th, 1891.

The reception of this work by the profession and by the mercantile community has been most satisfactory. It has been universally pronounced to be at once a thoroughly scholarly, sound, and eminently practical treatise.

IMPORTANT FEATURES.

- (1) A short introduction, tracing the history of the Law Merchant, and the law of Bills in Canada.
- (2) The full text of the Act (including the forms).
- (3) The differences between the Canadian Act, and the English Act upon which it is based, carefully indicated.
- (4) The alterations in the law effected by the Act grouped or collected, and also pointed out as they respectively occur.
- (5) Concise annotations wherever necessary, designed chiefly to show the effect of the changes introduced by the Act and to collate the different sections which explain and illustrate each other.
- (6) All the English decisions bearing on the English Act.
- (7) All the important Canadian decisions bearing upon points of law covered by the Canadian Act.
- (8) A complete set of forms in addition to those specified in the Act.
- (9) A carefully prepared index.

Another important feature is THE ADDENDUM, which contains the amendments of 1891, and brings the work right up to date.

In order to insure the utmost degree of geographical accuracy, the work has received every careful attention in its passage through the press.

It is printed in good type of large size, on English paper of the best quality, and is strongly and handsomely bound in three styles of binding. The prices are as follows: Cloth, $3.25; Half Calf, $4.00; Full Calf, $5.00.

"So far as printing and general make-up are concerned, the book merits more than a passing notice. The binding is neat and strong, and the type is clear and handsome. In short, it is the best printed law book that has come under our notice for some time."—Western Law Times.
