CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

A. O. H. the editor of The Catholic Register

A very pleasant and mistructive evening was spent by the members and the many friends of the Ladies Auxiliary div. No B. A.O.H. on last Tuesday ovening in their hall, corner of Queen and Broadview avenue, the oceasion being the insullation of officers for the counting year. The ecremony was conducted by Mr. Hugh Kelly, president of Div. No. B. in a very pleasing and impressive manner. The musical part of the programme was contributed by the following ladies and gentlemen:—Misses Drumphey Erown, Isixkeon, McCabe, Mrs. Falvey and a juvenile quartette of club swingers composed of Misses O Brien, Quigley and the two Misses Brien, Quigley and the two Misses Brien, Quigley and the two Misses Richard sons, and by Messra. Roach, Conton. Harris, O Keefe and O'Reilly needless to say in a very satisfactory manner. But the treat of the evening was furnished by the Rev. Father Lynett, who in a splendid address brimful of the spirit of Irish patriotism, urged upon his hearers, the advantages to be gained by connecting themselves with such an organization as the Ancient Order of Hiberniars reminding them of the fact that that society had sprung into existence in a time of dire necessity, when the Oatholio faith was in danger of being exterminated in Ireland, when the Oatholio faith was in danger of being exterminated in Ireland, when the Oatholio faith Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Those men had banded themselves together for the protection of their clergy and from those days until the present time the organization has continued to axis in Ireland, some 60 years ago us seeds were first transplanted to this side of the Atlantic, until now it is organized in every state of the Union, and in all the provinces of Canads. Miss Kelly, President of the Division, who is also provincial president of the Ladies Auxiliary also addressed the meeting, thatking the members, that the new year may bring to the Ladies of No. 8 treated their visiting friends to a sumptous repast, which you may be sure was done ample justice to. Room in Gold Mines

Room in Gold Mines,

The talk on the streets now-a-days is principally of gold mines, not alone in British Columbia, but also in several places nearer home—in the Rainy River tour very doors on the height of the Don. Undoubtedly there are features in these mines for the strikes the right thing at the sight time, his chances of becoming the strikes the right thing at the sight time, his chances of becoming in this industry the Rossland Gold Mining Development and Investment Company—whose offices are at 114 Yonge street—has achieved as marked success. The par value of the Company's shares is set down at $1.00, and the selling price at 15c cach, in blocks of 100 shares. Within a few weeks no less than 200 000 of those shares have been sold, and the sales are still rapid and increasing. We commend those intending to invest in the yellow product see Mr. Fullerton, the Managor, who will be found at his offlice, 114 Yonge street, and who will be pleased to give all necessary information on the subject of gold-mining.

A very protty but quice wedding was celebrated in St. Michael's Cathiedrai Wedluosday morning at 11 o'cl oh, when Major Houry A tray. the well-knewn towerment engineer, was unted to Miss Norman A. Merrick, Second daughter of the late J. D. Merrick, Sheriff of Prescott and Russell. Roy. Father Ryan. rector of St. Michael's Cathiedral, performed the ceremony. The braid was very prefitly attired in a helotrope traveling dress with white satu and mink trumings and hat to match. She was attended by her sister. Miss clima Merrick, who won a stylish dove grey estime edged with violet velvet and a handsone lack edvert hat. Despit the fact that the wedding was so very quiet was surprising how many friends were present at the cherch to witness the happy event. Major and Mrs. Gray different contents to the states.

People generally have not looked, during the past year, for fruitful yields from business, whether of a commercial or au industrial character; and the state of surprise. Inveseorer much continuous districts of surprise, however much continuous districts of surprise. Inveseorer much continuous districts of surprises in the walks indicated, and not a few have felt the pinch of hard times, the Company named above has not celly managed to pull through the viciastates of the past year, but has done so with a successful record which surpassed the most prosperous year of the North American's existence. The balance-sheet to slist December shows cash income, $4611,783; expenditure including death claims, endowments, matured investment policies, profits and all other payments to policyholder's, $480,545; the assets go as high as $2,015,833; the reserve fund to $1,091.626; with net surplus for policy-holders so large as $421,548. A Company which, in the short space of twelve months, increases its assets by $215,-315, and shows a total of insurance amounting to $17,494,107, may safely be said to have reached the goal of its amounting to $17,494,107, may safely be said to have reached the goal of its amounting the Board upon the profits resulting from their sound husiness may reasonably be proud of; and while congratulating the Board upon the profits resulting from their sound husiness wood word on the Staff outshly believe of their work have been important factors in the martelous progress made by the North American Life.
