ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE JUNI.

The second annual meeting and dinner of the St. Michael's College Alumni Association, Toronto, were held at St. Michael's College, on Tuesday, July 2nd. Vicar-General McCann presided in the absence of the chairman, Mr. J. J. Foy, M.P. At the meeting the executive was re-elected to mature the projects they have in view for the association. At the dinner short speeches were made by Archbishop O'Connor, Archbishop Bruchesi and by Very Rev. Father Durand, Superior General, who spoke in French. Other speakers followed. An extended report of both the meeting and dinner will appear in The Register next week.

ST. MICHAEL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The closing exercises of St. Michael's Sunday School were held last Sunday at 4.30 in the Cathedral. His Grace, the Archbishop, distributed the prizes to the successful pupils. The gold medal, which was presented by Mrs. French, was obtained by Master George O'Leary. Duella Crow received the same number of marks. The silver medal, which was also presented by Mrs. French, was obtained by Zoe Case. The prizes for high standing and regular attendance were awarded to Duella Crow, Ada Blair, Irene McLaren, Zeni Dutton, Kate Fenny, Inez Brazillie. The fourth class girls who are prizeholders are Cornelia Russell, Emma Lyons, Veronica O'Leary, Annie Doherty, Lillian Lavery, Anne McMillan, and the prizeholders in the fourth class boys are W. O'Leary, N. McGeath, T. Lyons, N. Hennessy, A. Heck, Francis Keany, Edward Foley.

After the distribution of prizes the Archbishop gave a very eloquent instruction to the children, saying at the same time that it gave him very great pleasure to be with them. He had been asked his views on patriotism and the relations of a citizen to his country. He claimed that he had very adequately fulfilled the duties of a patriotic citizen on that day. In the morning he had ordained a good young man to the priesthood of God's holy church in the Dominion of Canada, and in this way had conferred a benefit on the country at large. And this afternoon, said the Archbishop, I am taking a practical interest in the great work of Catholic Christian education by furthering the good work which is being done by St. Michael's Cathedral Sunday School.

BASILIAN APPOINTMENTS.

Roche, Houston, Texas; Rev. Fr. Renaud Amherstburg and Rev. J. Ryan, assistant to Rev. F. L. Grannosier, at Owen Sound.

The Council for the current year will be Rev. V. Marjion, Provincial; Rev. Fr. Cushing, 1st Vice-Provincial; Rev. L. Brennan, 2nd Vice-Provincial; Rev. Fr. Ferguson and Rev. Fr. Grannosier.

MR. JOHN BYAN HOME.

Mr. John Byan, Jarvis Street, returned home last week, after an absence of ten months in the old world. He paid a prolonged visit to Ireland, driving through the country in a carriage, instead of taking the trains and tourist road "cars." In this way he came in close contact with the people, and learned much of interest about their present condition. Mr. Byan says the land laws at present are a vast improvement upon the old form of landlordism; but there is still a great deal remaining to be accomplished. Until the people are rooted in the soil, enjoying the local government that will give opportunity for economical administration, there will be left the traces of their past evils to retard progress. As an instance he mentioned the fact that if his horses pulled up at a crossroad, a hamlet or a village it was immediately surrounded by a small force of police. What the police had to do he could not where make out as the country not only had all the visible signs of peace and order, but the records of the Petty Sessions Courts and Assizes proved the reality of this peaceful state. The burden of the police along should be deemed intolerable. Several times he had to ask them why they were idling about his carriage. Mr. Byan does not wonder at the emigration record. But he is strongly impressed with the hope that further improvement in the law will enable a practically active and intelligent people to stem the tide of their retrogression and make the country inviting to the rising generation. Mr. Byan looks improved by his journey, and was in excellent spirits talking with the Register. He called into the War Office in London for his Matele medal, but it would only be delivered to the owner, who is still in South Africa serving in the Prince of Wales Horse.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM MOYLAN.

It is with sorrow we announce the death of Mr. William Moylan, which took place at his late residence, 74 Car street, on Sunday night the 30th ult. Mr. Moylan was born in Rathclah, Ireland, in 1837, and came to this country in 1854 and to Toronto in 1855. He had for many years been engaged in the livery business from which a few years ago on account of his advancing years and enfeebled health, he was forced to retire. His death, although not a very sudden one, came as a shock to his family and many friends. He had been confined to his room for some months but was exceedingly bright on Saturday and Sunday. Heart disease was the immediate cause.

The funeral took place Tuesday morning to St. Basil's Church, where requiem high mass was sung by Rev. L. Brennan, assisted by Rev. Father Sullivan as deacon and Rev. Mr. Pageau as sub-deacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. Fathers Tealy, Cushing, McBrady, Fiachon, Walsh, O'Donoghue and Roche. The pall bearers were Messrs. Shea, McConvey, Wren and Lanelly. After mass the body was taken to its last resting place in St. Michael's Cemetery, followed by a large cortege of sorrowing relatives and friends. He leaves a widow and five children to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy. May he rest in peace.

DEPUTY CHIEF O'KEEFE.

Ottawa, June 28.—Ottawa's deputy chief of police Mr. Denis O'Keefe, brother of Police Magistrate O'Keefe, died yesterday, aged 61 years. He had been ill for some time as the result of a grippe, but his end came sudden. The late Mr. O'Keefe had been down stairs in his home, 50 Russell avenue, and he remarked to his sister, Mrs. Prevost, that he felt the heat and would go up stairs to change his coat. He did so, and just as he finished weakness overcame him and he sank back in the chair dead. His death removes one of the veterans of the police force, and a man who enjoyed the respect and esteem of all the members of the police force as well as many others. The news of his death caused genuine sorrow at the police station, where the kindly deputy chief will be very much missed.

The late Mr. O'Keefe rose from the ranks. In 1866, when the present police force was organized, he joined as one of the first six constables, under the late Chief Langrell. The late Mr. O'Keefe's attention to duty won for him promotion, and he was made sergeant, then inspector and four years ago he became deputy chief. During the thirty-five years he was on the force the late Mr. O'Keefe was never mentioned for any inattention to duty. Always ready for duty, he took part in many noted cases, and he knew not only many of Ottawa's best citizens but also many of the worst. He was noted for his sound common sense, good judgment and knowledge of human nature.

Mr. O'Keefe came to this city in 1861 from Bombay, New York, where he was born in 1840. He was a bachelor and lived with his brother, Police Magistrate George O'Keefe, at 50 Russell avenue. Mr. John O'Keefe, contractor, is a brother, and Mrs. Alphonse Prevost is a sister. Seldom has there been a larger funeral in the capital. The presence of the full force of the Ottawa police, the Dominion police, and a section of the fire brigade, constituted a testimony of the kindly feeling with which every one regarded the departed.

The funeral took place from the late residence of the chief. The procession went first to St. Joseph's Church, and thence to Notre Dame Cemetery.

At the church Rev. Father Murphy and Rev. Canon McCarthy conducted the funeral service. There was a large attendance at the church.

The police were under the personal leadership of Chief Powell and the sergeants. They numbered about forty. A section of over twenty of the Dominion police, under Inspector Hogan, followed, while the fire brigade under Deputy Chief Latimer were also in the march. The men marched from the house to the church, and from there to the city limits, where they took buses that had been provided for them and followed the dead to the last resting place in Notre Dame Cemetery. The chief mourners were Magistrate O'Keefe, Mr. J. C. O'Keefe and Mrs. Alf. Prevost, sister of the deceased.

A large number of the aldermen and the mayor were present in carriages, and followed the procession to the grave.

THOMAS SINNETT.

The Ridgeway Dominion records the death of Thomas Sinnett, 7th con., Howard, aged 52 years. His illness, pneumonia, extended over a period of ten days, during which he had every care and attention from physicians and nurses. Deceased was born on the farm and was one of Howard's best-known and most highly respected citizens, enjoying the confidence and esteem of a very large circle of friends. He served several years as trustee of the school section. About 15 years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Mary O'Neill, of Raleigh, Besid- the widow five children, two boys and three girls, are left to mourn the loss of a good husband and father. Deceased also leaves three sisters and one brother, Mrs. A. McAnally, of Chatham; Mrs. Cunningham, of Shenboro, P. Q.; Mrs. William Regan, of this town; and Rev. Father Sinnett, the confessor and chaplain who was with the Second Canadian contingent in South Africa. Father Sinnett, who is at Edmonton, N. W. T., found it impossible to reach here in time even for the funeral, which took place on Monday. The funeral was very largely attended, the members of Branch No. 235, C. M. B. A., of which deceased was a member, attending in a body and acting as pall bearers. Service was held at St. Michael's Church, Rev. Father Boubat officiating. The remains were interred in the R. C. Cemetery, Howard.

Among the floral offerings was a cross of red and white roses from the C. M. B. A.

JAMES HENIGAN.

Hamilton, June 17.—The funeral of the late James Henigan occurred from the family residence, 446 King William street, yesterday afternoon, and the large cortege which followed the remains evidenced the esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow-citizens. The requiem was sung by Rev. Father Coty, at St. Patrick's church and the interment occurred at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

The floral offerings were many and handsome, and included remembrances from Samuel Davis, Jr., H. James, Thos. H. Corbett, O. W. Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. Jones (Buffalo), Joseph and Mrs. James (Windsor), G. J. Rayner, Mr. and Mrs. Colgan, Mrs. James Wilson and H. Sullivan. The pall-bearers were Samuel Davis, Jr., Daniel Sullivan, John Ford, William Findlay, M. D. Nelligan and John Mullisney (Toronto).
