

P. S.—We understand that arrangements are in progress under the management of the Kirk Session of St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, with a view to the accommodation of such ministers as may purpose to attend the approaching meeting of Synod. We would suggest that parties, intending to visit Kingston with that view, should notify some of the members of Session, or we might venture to name John Mowat, Esq. of Kingston, as a suitable person to communicate with on the subject, understanding that it has been confided to his oversight.
