

B. F. Stevens's American Library and Literary Agency

Was established in London in 1894 for the supply of European books, now and old, to Public Libraries and private collectors in the United States and Canada, in large or small quantities. The facilities and economies offered by this agency to book buyers include:—

Prompt execution of orders. All books are despatched by early mail or steamer.

New books are changed at trade prices, which are usually twenty-five per cent. off the price of publication.

Old or second-hand Books are charged at lowest nett prices.

Commission of ten per cent. on trade or nett prices.
