TORONTO, JUNE 7, 1890.

No. 23.
Whole No. 887.

There is not a farmer in all this bread land, not a lumberman, a fisherman, a miner or a shipper but is compelled to pay TRIBUTE to the United States as the result of this war of Tariffs
-Winnon at Waterloo

In the last 20 years the Canadian Farmers have contributed to the U.S. Treasury at least $50,000,000, while the total TRIBUTE paid by Canadian producers has been the vast sum of $150,000,000!
-Winnon at Waterloo

Since 1866 the lumber dealers of Canada have paid into the treasury of the United States no less a sum than $25,000,000!
-Winnon at Waterloo

In addition to this TRIBUTE TO A FOREIGN POWER the people of Canada have paid in domestic taxes in the past 20 years the sum of $620,000,000!
-Winnon at Waterloo

$750,000,000 wrung out of 5,000,000-people in 20 years, and worse to come!!!

THE FARMER BEARS THE BRUNT OF IT ALL

In this INSANE strife the United States has taken prisoner 1,000,000 of Canada's best citizens!
-Winnon at Waterloo

Where can history show a parallel to this loss in any record of War, Pestilence or Famine?

Canada's Debt to Great Britain- public and private is now $650,000,000, on which the interest at 4 per cent amounts to $10,000 an hour!!
-Winnon at Waterloo.

MATTER FOR SOBER THOUGHT.

SIR JOHN (in his own inimitable, Sir Faunty way)—"Hello, my farming friend! What are you looking so thundering sober about? Come along, and I'll tell you a funny story!!"
