PILORIMAGE. --- Want of space compells us to hold over the reminiscences of a pilgrim till next week. FIRE _____A terrible fire broke out_in New York on Monday evening, in which over a hundred people perished. era sittati da for CORRECTION .--- In an article taken from Le Nouveau

Mende, which appeared in the TRUE WITNESS last week, we accidentally omitted giving our respected confrere credit for it. 1 nd 107 W

RESUMED PUBLICATION,-The St. John's Freeman has emerged once more after the great St. John's fire. We received a copy last week, and are glad to find it looking as spritely as ever.

NEW PAPER --- We have received in exchange L'Eclaireur, a bright little French sheet, lately published in Quebec, with a subscription already of $1,200. Long may it prosper.

BABE-BALL. - The Dominion beat the "Maple "Dominion" would like to meet the "Resolutes," and by their addressing the Secretary of the " Dominion," P. O. Box 274, that can be arranged.

BOUSSELLE CASE .- The argument in the Rousselle pistol-pointing case was heard on Tuesday by the Police Magistrate, who took the case en delibere. The hearing of evidence in the case of Rousselle vs. O'Brien for assault and battery was then commenced.

ST. PATRICE'S SociETY .- The Regular monthly meeting of the St. Patrick's Society was held at its rooms, corner of Craig and St. Alexander Sts., on Monday night last, Mr. Barry in the chair. After the usual routine business had been disposed off, the meeting adjourned, there being nothing of importance before it.

EXCURSION .- The St. Jean Baptiste Society is with great prospects of success, organizing an excursion to Quebec, and we need scarcely say that the excursion will be an agreeable one to all taking part in it, as the organizers have taken all means necessary to ensure comfort. Those wishing to participate should procure tickets at once, as it will be the last of that description this season.

THE OKA CASE .- Yesterday Mr. McLaren present ed a petition to Judge Torrance for a writ of habeas corpus to have Chief Joseph admitted ito bail. Mr. St. Pierre appeared for the Crown, and asked to have it stand over until to-day, as Mr. Mousseau, Q. C., wished to be present and could not possibly attend yesterday. His Horor granted the application, and fixed the hearing for to-day.

THEATRICAL.-Mr. Rignold, the great Star Actor, has left after a fortnight's performance in the Academy of Music to splendid houses. Finer acting than that of Mr. Rignold's and his confreres has been seldom witnessed in the classic boards of the Academy. The nights dedicated to Shakesperian plays will long be remembered in Montreal by lovers of the legitimate drama.

MILITIA .--- The Minerve of last Thursday says :--The Irish Canadian advises the Ilish Catholics to enrole themselves in the militia regiments of the Dominion, the same as other citizens. We say in like manner to the French Canadians, learn with enthusiasm the practice of the military art for which they were formerly so distinguished. Besides its practical advantages it goes to complete the education of the citizen.

ATTEMPT AT MUBDER ON A TRAIN .--- We are informed that on Monday night last, shortly after the Montreal express had left Toronto, an intoxicated young man in a second class car drew a revolver and fired at an inoffensive fellow passenger facing him. The shot is supposed to have been taken at random by the young man in the frenzy of drink and merely grazed the unoffender's arm. The assailant was arrested and placed in custody at Whitby. It is supposed that he threw the pistol out of the car window as it could nowhere be found .--Herald.

FUNERAL.—One of the largest and most imposing funerals ever seen in Montreal, took place on Sunday, when the remains of William Doran aged 34 who belonged to No. 5 Branch of the Catholic Union, were conveyed to the Catholic Cemetery.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

excitable disposition and unexceptionable character.

Her attractions brought to her two suiters, and unable to withstand the impotunity of their addresses she placed herself in the false position of promising to each her hand in marriage. Upon reviewing her conduct, her sensitive nature became so alive to the situation in which she had placed herself, that she fell into a state of extreme melancholy. Unable to see any escape, she took the rash resolve of putting an end to her suffering by voluntary death. On Friday morning last she took a quantity of strychnine, sufficient to ensure death. Although she said nothing of what she had done, her sickness was immediately perceived, and medical assistance procured. But the strychnine had done its work, and in little over two hours after taking the poison she was a corpse.

DUNKIN ACT .- Referring to his vote on the Dun-kin Act and the conversation which he had with the Mayor in casting it, the Hon. Wm. McDougall writes as follows to the Telegram: I did not vote against the Dunkin By-law because Mr. Mowat voted for it as some have in ferred. I asked the question as to his vote, because I could not believe the rumor that he had thus publicly expressed his want of confidence in himself and his colleagues in respect to their own elaborate and much amended policy on the subject. I assumed that he had at least read the Dunkin Act, and knew that where it came into force license laws, wholesale and retail, of the Local Legislature, ceased and bc-came inoperative; in other words, that free trade in all kinds of intoxicating drinks would be established thereby and though not less than a dozen bottles could be sold at any one time, yet the reduction in the price of liquor, from the non-issue of licenses which the Dunkin Act prohibits, would go far to nullify the restriction. As the Attorney-General professes to be a Christian politician, and, with his brother Premier, loudly boasts on public platforms of his own and his party's unexampled duty and purity, I wished as a friend of Temperance to emphasize my dissent from their doctrines and their practice in this matter. If Mr. Mowat had accepted the amendment proposed by myself and others last session to Mr. Crook's Bill, viz., abolition of saloon licenses altogether, hundreds of those who have voted for the Dunkin Act without reading it or understanding its operation, would have been deprived of the only excuse they now give for the absurd attempt to restrain and make difficult the purchase of a dangerous article by cheapening its price and permitting every merchant and trader to sell it as he sells bread by the dozen
