Mercantile Summary.

MR. E. WIMAN, of New York, arrived in Toronto some days ago and is making a brief stay with his friends here.

A CHANGE has taken place in the management of the Confederation Life Association; Mr. Wm. McCabe lately Manager has retired from that position and Mr. John K. Macdonald, Vice-President assumes it, temporarily, at least.

It will interest the mercantile community to know that Messrs. Murray, Middlemiss & Co., of the Commercial Agency, have dissolved. Mr. Middlemiss retires to attend to his Real Estate operations at the "Tanneries" and Mr. Bailie, the "Co," goes into the straw goods business.

AN Ottawa despatch says that half a million of capital has been subscribed for the new Bank of Ottawa; and that a meeting is to be held shortly to elect directors.
