

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

The Juniors' reception will take place this afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Henderson, '06, was called home on Thursday on account of the serious illness of his brother.

Miss M. Robinson, '99, of the Forestry Branch, Department of Interior, Ottawa, was a visitor at Varsity on Thursday.

Miss H. S. Wolverton, '99, who has been taking a course in Medicine, is now training as nurse in St. Luke's Hospital, New York.

The '06 Debating Society met last week and were addressed by the Honorary President, Professor Alexander. An open debate on the residence question followed.

The McGill debaters and the judges in the contest were entertained to an informal dinner in the dining-hall after the debate Friday night.

The Faculty and a number of the Undergraduates were the guests of Mrs. Chas. Moss at a delightful afternoon tea at Roseneath, Saturday last.

The debate at the Political Science Club last week was called off, owing to a clash of functions. The debate will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in Room 2. The subject will be the tariff.

Religious Thought in the Light of the Twentieth Century.

The Rev. J. T. Sunderland, M.A., announces a series of Special Sunday Evening Sermons on the above subject in the Unitarian Church, Jarvis St., near Wilton Ave., as follows:

- Nov. 16—The New Thought of Religion.
- " 23—The New Thought of God.
- " 30—The New Thought of Man.
- Dec. 7—The New Thought of the Bible.
- " 14—The New Thought of Jesus.
- " 21—The New Thought of Salvation.
- " 28—The New Thought of Heaven and Hell.

Mr. Sunderland's course of lectures on "Religion and Evolution," which awakened wide interest in Toronto last winter, may be obtained in book form at Tyrrell's, 8 King St., west, or at Vauvevar's, 438 Yonge St., for 25c.

The dinner will take place on December 9. A good dinner and a good line of speakers are now assured. Every Arts man should support this function. It is the one thing which everybody can enjoy. As in former years, the dinner will not be a dress affair. Last year over half of those present did not even wear dress suits, and the same will be true this year.
