

ARTICLE V

Experts on Missions for the Agency or the Institute

1. Experts (other than officials coming within the scope of Article IV), performing missions for the Agency or for the Institute, shall be accorded such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions during the period of their missions. In particular they shall be accorded the following privileges and immunities:

- (a) immunity from personal arrest or detention and from seizure of their personal baggage;
- (b) immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and acts done by them in the course of the performance of their mission;
- (c) inviolability for all papers and documents;
- (d) the same facilities in respect of currency or exchange restrictions as are accorded to representatives of foreign governments on temporary official missions;
- (e) the same immunities and facilities in respect of their personal baggage as are accorded to diplomatic envoys.

2. Privileges and immunities are granted to experts in the interests of the Agency or the Institute and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. The Secretary-General of the Agency or the Executive Director of the Institute shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any expert in any case where, in his opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and it can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Agency or the Institute.

ARTICLE VI

Abuse of Privileges

1. If the Government of Canada considers that an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, consultation shall take place between the Government and the Agency in order to determine whether such an abuse has occurred, and, if so, to endeavour to prevent its repetition.

2. The Government of Canada may not require representatives of the Members, or officials and experts, to leave Canada on account of an activity carried out by them in their official capacity. However, in the case of the abuse of privileges of residence by these persons resulting from activities outside their official functions, the Government of Canada may require any such person to leave provided that:

- (a) the representatives of Members and the officials designated in Article IV, Section 2 shall be required to leave Canada in accordance with the diplomatic procedure applicable to diplomatic envoys accredited to Canada;
