

3. ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL

The overall control of the Canadian Team, while it is in the Netherlands, shall lie with the Canadian Arms Control Verification Inspection Team Leader. The Canadian Team shall abide by the Standard Administrative Procedures (SAP) developed by the Royal Netherlands Army as a result of this Agreement.

4. STATUS

- 4.1. The members of the Canadian Team shall enjoy the privileges and immunities enjoyed by diplomatic agents pursuant to Article 29; Article 30, paragraph 2; Article 31, paragraphs 1,2 and 3; and Articles 34 and 35 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of April 18, 1961.
- 4.2. Without prejudice to their privileges and immunities, it shall be the duty of all members of the Canadian Team to respect the laws and regulations of the Netherlands.
They shall also have a duty not to interfere in the internal affairs of the Netherlands.

5 TRANSPORTATION AND TRAVEL EXPENSES

Ground transportation for the Canadian Team shall be by vehicles rented by the Canadian Team at its own cost. At no cost to Canada, the Royal Netherlands Army may provide military drivers to pick up the Canadian Team upon first arrival to conduct final inspection planning, during departure for and arrival from the inspected state and during the departure of the Canadian Team back to Canada (or to the respective home state). All other transportation expenses shall be the responsibility of the Canadian Team.

6. PROTOCOL SUPPORT

The Royal Netherlands Army shall provide, at no cost to Canada, a liaison official at Schiphol International Airport to assist arriving and departing Canadian Teams. This official may use the same transportation as that used by the Canadian Team.

7. ACCOMMODATION, MESSING AND FACILITIES

- 7.1. The Royal Netherlands Army shall provide accommodation for one team at a time at the agreed rate based upon Standardization Agreement charges to military personnel of the North Atlantic Treaty (NATO) in transit.
- 7.2. The Canadian Team shall pay all the costs of this accommodation on completion of their stay. The local messes shall be available to serve meals to the Canadian Team at normal mealtimes, and also during Canadian-hosted protocol events. These events shall require the agreement of the local mess manager and shall be coordinated by each Team Leader. All team members shall be afforded access to all messing and recreational facilities normally available to Netherlands military
