

Mr. Clark urged all parties to the communal conflict to resume negotiations immediately. Canada believes that the proposals made by the Sri Lankan Government last December are equitable and reasonable. It is the view of the Canadian Government, Mr. Clark stated that "these proposals can form the basis for a political solution". "Canada stands ready to assist in any way appropriate should the parties to the conflict so wish", he reported.