

No. 1,878—Mr. Caouette

For each of the past six years, by province, and for Canada as a whole (a) what is the amount of federal income tax collected from individuals (b) what is the amount of federal income tax collected from corporations, as estimated on the basis of taxable income?

Mr. Forest, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, presented,—Returns to the foregoing Orders.

Notices of Motions for the Production of Papers Nos. 70, 82, 84, 86, 88, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98 and 101 were allowed to stand at the request of the government.

Ordered,—That there be laid before this House copies of the contracts between Rod Service Ltd. and the Government of Canada relative to the purchase in March 1969 of vehicles owned by Rod Service Ltd., and for copies of contracts between Transfer Lapalme and the Government of Canada for the sale of these vehicles to Transfer Lapalme.—(Notice of Motion for the Production of Papers No. 99—Mr. Macquarrie).

Ordered,—That there be laid before this House copies of Official Purchase Orders of the Post Office Department sent to Rod Service Ltd. at the time of purchase by the Government of Canada of vehicles from Rod Service.—(Notice of Motion for the Production of Papers No. 100—Mr. Macquarrie).

The Order being read for the consideration of Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, as reported with amendments from the Standing Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs;

A notice of motion standing in the name of the honourable Member for Abitibi (Mr. Laprise) having been called, as follows: That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended in that the Bill be not now read and that the subject-matter of the Committee Report be grouped into four sections entitled, namely:

- (a) abortion
- (b) homosexuality and indecent assault
- (c) lottery and gaming
- (d) the remaining clauses of the Bill.

Mr. Speaker ruled the said proposed motion out of order on the grounds that it was in the nature of a reasoned amendment since it proposed that the bill be not now read, and according to long standing practice was the type of
