

[Text]

the advantages of this Senate committee, I might say, is that we are already authorized now to hold a meeting and if anyone has a problem, we can call a meeting at a moment's notice and hear evidence.

We hope to get into other aspects of society which affect veterans and, hopefully, we can come up with some solutions in the Senate. I thank you for appearing and look forward to hearing from you again.

Hon. Senators: Hear, hear.

The committee adjourned.

[Traduction]

avantages du Comité sénatorial, je dirais, c'est que nous sommes déjà autorisés à tenir des séances et que si quelqu'un a un problème, nous pouvons convoquer une réunion à la dernière minute et entendre des témoins.

Nous espérons étudier d'autres aspects de la société qui touchent les anciens combattants et en arriver à des solutions du Sénat. Je vous remercie d'avoir comparu aujourd'hui. Nous espérons avoir l'occasion de vous entendre à nouveau.

Des voix: Bravo! bravo!

La séance est levée.

The Chairman: There were a number of questions asked during the meeting. I will now answer some of them. Mr. Giguere asked about the possibility of a meeting with the Minister of Veterans Affairs. I would like to say that we are already authorized to hold a meeting at a moment's notice and hear evidence. We hope to get into other aspects of society which affect veterans and, hopefully, we can come up with some solutions in the Senate. I thank you for appearing and look forward to hearing from you again.

The Chairman: There were a number of questions asked during the meeting. I will now answer some of them. Mr. Giguere asked about the possibility of a meeting with the Minister of Veterans Affairs. I would like to say that we are already authorized to hold a meeting at a moment's notice and hear evidence. We hope to get into other aspects of society which affect veterans and, hopefully, we can come up with some solutions in the Senate. I thank you for appearing and look forward to hearing from you again.