U.S.S.R.—PLIGHT OF YURIJ SHUKHEVYCH

Mr. Bob Horner (Mississauga North): Mr. Speaker, I rise today to bring to the attention of the House the plight of Yuriy Shukhevych, a Ukrainian political prisoner being held in the U.S.S.R. In 1948, at the age of 14, Mr. Shukhevych was arrested and sentenced to 10 years in prison because he was the son of General Roman Shukhevych, the Commander-in-Chief of the Ukrainian insurgent army, who was killed in 1950.

When his sentence expired in 1958, Mr. Shukhevych was arrested again by the KGB and sentenced to an additional 10 years for refusing to renounce his father. He completed that sentence and was again arrested in 1972 and sentenced to a further 15 years' detention. It was alleged that Yuriy Shukhevych was involved in anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda.

The deprivation and isolation which Mr. Yuriy Shukhevych has endured over the years have taken their toll. His physical condition has declined seriously, and he has suffered partial loss of vision. His captors have denied him access to any medical care and, therefore, his health continues to deteriorate.

In the spirit of Canada's commitment to human rights, I urge the Department of External Affairs to work in conjunction with immigration officials in Canada and in the U.S.S.R. to assist Yuriy Shukhevych's efforts to obtain proper medical attention here in Canada.

TRADE

CANADA-UNITED STATES TRADE AGREEMENT—ABSENCE OF FINAL TEXT

Hon. Chas. L. Caccia (Davenport): Mr. Speaker, Canadians find it rather odd that we have not yet seen the legal document on which the trade deal is to be implemented. We all know the importance of the small print when we sign an agreement, buy a house, et cetera.

In addition, two years ago when the Government of Canada set out to get an agreement on trade with the U.S.A., we were told that Canada was going to seek a bargain, an exemption from U.S. trade laws, in order that we could sell our steel, potash, fish, lumber, et cetera on the American market free from the danger of being hurt by countervailing duties or other penalties.

Unfortunately, if we read carefully what has been announced so far by the Government, we did not get the bargain and the exemption we were seeking. Instead, we got a review panel which will decide whether U.S. laws, not ours, are fairly applied in the case of a dispute. When there will be one, whose opinion do you think will win? The opinion of the bigger or of the smaller partner in the dispute? History is full of examples where in the end the bigger partner always wins.

THE DISABLED AND THE HANDICAPPED

TRIBUTE TO LUC GRAVEL AND EMPLOYEES OF CIPH IN ALMA, LAC-SAINT-JEAN, QUÉBEC

Mr. Guy St. Julien (Abitibi): Mr. Speaker, in Alma in the Lac-Saint-Jean area, a business where both management and employees are either physically or mentally handicapped has been operating for four years.

The business consists of a service station, without a machine shop but with a carwash, a convenience store, a truck and fishing-boat rental outlet, a video rental club, a photocopy service, a soft-drink outlet and a fire extinguisher sale and service outlet.

This enterprise, the Saguenay—Lac-Saint-Jean Corporation d'intégration des personnes handicapées, is unique in Canada. The CIPH, as it is called, is a business without a boss, where managers work from their wheel chairs and where junior employees, who were still in institutions not long ago, are today participating in a unique experiment in two-fold community integration.

Luc Gravel, a special education teacher and head of external services at Villa du Lys, masterminded this undertaking. Mrs. Hélène Perron is chairman of the board of directors. Today, they want to persuade Petro-Canada to set aside one of its service stations in each region in this country as a potential CIPH.

Congratulations to Luc Gravel and all employees!

OPPOSITION TO CANADA-UNITED STATES TRADE AGREEMENT

Mr. John Parry (Kenora—Rainy River): Mr. Speaker, over the past three weeks I have received more than 100 letters from residents of my constituency on the Reagan-Mulroney trade deal. They are still coming in at a rate of 10 per day, and to date all but five oppose this trade give-away. I want to share with the House some of the concerns of citizens of northwestern Ontario.

Mr. William Blyth of Dryden states that the deal is not for Canada. He states, "It's up to you, John, and your Party to have this Government out before our country is in a greater mess".
