March 17, 1924.

Dear Sir Arthur:

I am giving myself the pleasure of sending with this, in memory of your friendly hospitality, copy of a volume I have recently brought into print which has to do with the events of the American Civil War. You may find time, busy administrator as you are, to look over certain of the chapters before putting the book into your collection of Americana. I think you would find matters of interest in the chapters on the London Times and the American Civil War and in that on the "Men Behind the Guns".

I am, with much respect and with a very pleasant memory of your charming hospitality,

Yours very truly,

Geo. Haven Putnam
