

442

HISTORY OF NEW-YORK,

FROM THE FIRST DISCOVERY TO THE YEAR M.DCC.XXXII.

TO WHICH IS ANNEXED, A DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTRY, WITH A SHORT ACCOUNT OF THE INHABITANTS, THEIR RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL STATE, AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COURTS OF JUSTICE IN THAT COLONY.

—♦—
Lo ! swarming o'er the new discoyer'd world,
Gay colonies extend ; the calm retreat
Of undeserv'd distress..... THOMSON.

Nec minor est virtus, quam querere, parta tueri.

—♦—
BY WILLIAM SMITH, A. M.

—♦—
WITH A CONTINUATION,

From the Year 1732, to the Commencement of the Year 1814.

—
ALBANY :

PRINTED BY RYER SCHERMERHORN.

Sold by himself and G. Forbes, Albany ; H. Stockwell, Troy ; A. Seward, Utica ; and Andrus & Starr, Hartford.

1814.

Acc. No. 36860