

WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE

- 280; arrives in Canada, 291; his appointment, 293; states his position, 293; appoints three executive councillors, 294; council resigns, 294; his views of responsibility, 295; censured by committee of the House, 296; House adopts the report, 297; refused supplies, 297; replies to address of deputation, 298; the deputation's reply, 300; appoints four new councillors, 300; schooled by Lord Glenelg, 301; joins Family Compact, 302; dissolves the House, 303; refuses assent to money bills, 303; interferes in elections, 304; insults Glenelg, 304; denounces Robert Baldwin, 305; quarrels with imperial commission of inquiry, 305; refuses to obey Lord Glenelg, 307; W. J. Rattray on, 307; his success in the elections, 308; unscrupulous influence in, 309; Lord Durham on, 309; some of his addresses, 313; charged with undue influence, 313; sustained by partisan House, 314; refuses offer of troops, 353; invites revolt, 354, 355; prepares to escape, 364; sends flag of truce, 368; orders burning of property, 381; seeks Mackenzie's extradition, 415; offers reward for Mackenzie's apprehension, 380
- Hincks, Sir Francis, on Welland Canal, 265; befriends Mackenzie, 481; publishes Examiner, 483; his Reminiscences, 483; his estimate of Mackenzie, 484; prime minister, 487
- Hume, Hon. Joseph, befriends Mackenzie, 221; assists Canada's cause, 222; presents case against Crown officials, 231; suggests Canadian independence, 250; "baneful domination" letter, 263; Dr. Morrison defends, 263; thanked by Mackenzie, 289; predicts civil war, 326; letter to Mackenzie, 475
- "Hunters' Lodges," convention of, 440; attack on Prescott, 442
- ### I
- IMMIGRATION, to colonies in 1820, state of, 88
- ### J
- JARVIS, SHERIFF W. B., Loyalists retreat under, 373
- ### K
- KETCHUM, JESSE, elected to the assembly, 150; delivers rejoinder to governor, 300
- Kerr, W. J., attempts Mackenzie's assassination, 218; tried and convicted, 220
- King, Dr., aids Mackenzie's escape, 389
- King, John, K.C., author of A Decade in the History of Newspaper Libel, 163
- ### L
- LaFontaine, L. H., addresses revolutionary meetings, 328