

amongst us, there is no change of the allegiance you owe to your Queen and country, for “The flag that's braved a thousand years,

The battle and the breeze” is the only flag that is recognised in our Dominion. In Canada loyalty to our good Queen and the old flag is something more than mere sentiment, it is a principle, and Canadians have long been noted for their adherence to everything British. How different is it the case if you desire to settle amongst our neigh-

THE DRY GOODS STORES OF J. R. WILLIAMSON, ONTARIO STREET.