Mr. Campbell to Mr. Seward.

UNITED STATES NORTHWEST BOUNDARY COMMISSION,

Washington, D. C., January 22, 1868.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st ultimo, enclosing a copy of a resolution of the Senate "calling for correspondence in relation to the respective claims of the United States and Great Britain to the island of San Juan, and other information connected with the subject," and directing me "to cause to be selected and arranged copies or extracts from any correspondence or discussions, and any information on the files or records of the commission, of the nature indicated in the resolution."

In compliance therewith, I respectfully transmit the papers and information called for by the department, including a map and cross-sections to illustrate the water boundary question.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL,

Commissioner of the Northwest Boundary Survey.

Hon. WILLIAM H. SEWARD,

Secretary of State.
