

PARTY SPIRIT
in TIME of
PUBLIC DANGER, CONSIDERED.

HOEVER has attentively considered the Turn which Affairs have lately taken, with the Causes which have long been operating to produce it, will see very clearly, that our Fate as a Nation, must in a great Measure, depend upon the Use we make of the present Conjunction.

Great Britain and France are the first Movers, by whose Conduct and Fortune those of all the other States in Europe are now constantly determined. The great Object of the Policy of Britain, is to preserve her own Freedom and Importance, by preserving the Independency and the Balance of all the others; the Drift of the French Poli-
