

THE NOVELS OF E. W. HORNUNG

NO HERO

AN Eton boy, who has escaped from his mother's influence and has fallen in love with a woman who is believed to be an adventuress, is the central figure in Mr. Hornung's new story. The scene is laid in Switzerland, with a background of piquant hotel gossip, the narrative being in the words of a friend of the boy's mother who has undertaken the task of disillusionizing the lad. The result is as unconventional as it is unexpected.

$1.25

---

THE SHADOW OF THE ROPE

"It is so absorbing that it must be read at a sitting. Having taken it up we have found ourselves unable to put it down before reaching the last page."

—New York Tribune.

"The detective side of the story does credit to the creator of Raffles."—San Francisco Chronicle.

$1.50

---

AT LARGE

"Once more he gives us a book decidedly entertaining to read."—New York Tribune.

$1.50