Proposals for Printing, The Parliamentary History of England, from the Accession of Charles the Second, to the Death of George the Second; In Thirty Volumes Octavo.
Price Nine Guineas, neatly bound. The Variety of Publications of the Proceedings of Parliament, during this long and interesting period have been assiduously collected and carefully revised, by several intelligent Gentlemen.

The Collection of Debates usually called Chandler's Collection, will be included in this Work; with such Corrections, as the Journals of Parliament, and other authentic Publications, have made necessary; together with a great Number of additional Speeches and Papers, which escaped the Notice of the former Editors; and some which have been printed since that Publication; and several which have not yet been printed. The Work which is now offered to the Public, is not a crude hasty Compilation; it is the Production of several Years Labour; close Application; diligent Search; and, the Editors hope, judicious Selection. In the last Volume will be given a copious Index to the whole. The former Parliamentary History ends where this begins. Subscriptions are taken in by the Publisher. No Money is desired at the Time of Subscribing. As soon as Two Hundred Copies are subscribed for, the Work will be sent to Press.
