

XVII.

Interested parties not permitted to act on Arbitration Committees.

That no member of the Arbitration Committee shall act thereon when any question in which he is a party interested, shall be before them, but his place shall be supplied by the Board, electing a member of the Association in his stead for the time being.

XVIII.

Violation of contracts, &c.

That any member of the Association who shall, by the Arbitration Committee, be declared wilfully guilty of violating any contract which shall have been submitted to their consideration, or to do or commit any act contrary to the Constitution, By-laws or Resolutions of this Association, shall forfeit the right and privilege of Membership, on such Report being confirmed by the Board.

XIX.

Journals, &c., to be provided.

That the Secretary shall provide and keep in the Room of the Association, for the use of the Members thereof, a file of such Journals and publications, as may be ordered by the Board, from time to time.

XX.

How Special Meetings may be called.

That on a Requisition signed by any five Members of the Association, the President, or in his absence, the Vice-President, may call a Special Meeting.

XXI.

Act of Incorporation.

That an Act of Incorporation may be applied for at as early a date as may be convenient, if the Board deem it expedient.
