Court of Appeals, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Justices of Supreme Court, Justices of Superior Court, Judge of Common Pleas, District Attorney and Governor of the Alms House—all the names to be on one ticket, endorsed when folded, 'State, City, and County, number one.'

"The second box receives the ticket for Alderman, Councilman, Assessor, Constable and Inspectors of Election—endorsed on the back, 'Charter, number two.'

"The third box takes the ballots for members of Assembly, endorsed 'Assembly, number three.'

"The fourth box receives the ballots for member of the State Senate, endorsed 'Senator, number four.'

"The remaining box will have only the school ballots—two Commissioners, two Inspectors, and one Trustee, (except in the twenty-first and twenty-second wards, where five Trustees will be chosen), endorsed 'Common Schools.'

Before reaching the house I was beset by sundry specimens of the genus "touter," wanting me to take their tickets, which of course I refused. I observed others refuse them, who were going up to vote. I also stood some time beside the ballot-boxes, and saw several persons come in, take folded slips of paper from their pockets, and place them in the ballot-boxes. According to all appearances, the ballot was secret. No doubt in a country where intimidation is unknown, there will be plenty of gossips to tell all the world how they intend to vote, or to receive printed tickets from partizans at the door. And this is probably the explanation of what Mr. Tremeneere
