

and the cure effected by using your Compound Sirup of Hypophosphites.

In April, 1868, I was attacked with palpitation of the heart. I sent for the doctor; and he said that nothing could be done for me, and that I was liable to die very suddenly. Being very weak, and unable to leave my bed, I became discouraged.

After my physician gave me up, I was induced to use your Compound Sirup of Hypophosphites; and the effect was wonderful. In two days, I felt the benefit of it; and, after taking half a bottle, I was entirely free from the complaint, and to this day have not been troubled with a return of the heart disease.

Yours very truly,

SARAH LENT.

CAMPBELLTON, N.B., July, 1873.

JAMES I. FELLOWS, Esq. Dear Sir,—In the fall of 1865, William Young, Esq., merchant, Car-aquet, Gloucester County, was ill with typhoid fever. Immediately after his recovery, he became afflicted with a cough, accompanied by much expectoration.

Residing at the time in that neighborhood, my attention was called to his case. The usual tonics and expectorants were administered without any perceptible benefit.

Having business in Montreal, Mr. Young consulted several eminent physicians there, including Dr. Campbell of McGill College, who advised a residence in a Southern climate, as his right lung was very seriously affected with a tubercular
