

- Political origin—continued
  - upon Telephone Commission other than Governmental, 85
  - situation in Manitoba in 1906, 20
- Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, 13, 14, 147
- Postmaster General of United States on cost of rural mail delivery, 123n.
- Private enterprise and the telephone, Manitoba, 13-29, 122-123
  - United States, 148
- Profits, Fictitious, 10, 41, 48, 49, 51, 61, 65, 69, 70, 78, 80, 125, 127, 139
  - under new Government, 155, 157-158
  - promised under Government ownership, 19-20, 32-33, 35
  - See also* Deficit
- Promises. See Commercial management, Profits, Rates
- Public Accounts of Manitoba, 25n, 50, 69n.
  - Committee (Manitoba Legislature), 60, 64, 70, 72n, 73n, 74, 86n.
- Exploitation of the Government telephone system by the, 45
- interests wholly overlooked in Government administration of telephones, 161
- ownership, Future of, as affected by the war, 11
  - not suitable or necessary for telephone business, 2-4
- Origin of, in Manitoba, summarized, 34-35
- Pecuniary disadvantages of, 5-6
- Public Accounts—continued
  - Results of, in foreign countries, 1-9
  - Social disadvantages of, 2-5, 8-9
  - Utilities Commission, 118, 124, 128n, 130, 157, 157n. approves rate increase (1912), 121
  - Beneficial influence of, 119, 127
- Purchase of the Bell telephone system by the Government, 26, 28, 29, 95, 151, 154
  - price of Bell telephone system, 28
  - criticized by Opposition and defended by Government, 29-31, 94-95
  - not unreasonable, 31
  - of telephone supplies controlled by the Government, 37, 40
- Rates promised to be "cut in two," 19, 21, 22, 35
  - reduced considerably, 17, 19, 23, 32
  - reduced to "cost," 18, 20, 50, 52
- Retention of Bell Telephone Company's, 47
- Sectional increase of (1908), 42, 47
- Reduction of, by Government for political purposes (1909), 62-64, 73
- Unjustifiability of, 66, 81, 86
- Increase of long distance, 88
- Proposed increase of (1911), 88-90
  - technically justifiable, 91
- Violent opposition to, 92-93
- abandoned (1912), 100
- Reports upon, by Winnipeg