

Hockey Fight Stopped in Hamilton Bowling League Scores

Note and Comment

This is the night that cricketers from all over the country gather at the Walker House on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Canadian Association. President Dr. Dean states that the meeting will be open and that any cricketer with an idea is welcome to attend and express it or he may go and listen.

The pastmaster president will be elected and also the other officers will be held for the season. The international match will be discussed, as it has been forcibly suggested that the discontinuance thereof would prove a benefit to the game. Also the international matches and Toronto cricket week in August will come up for settlement.

Providence is aroused because Toronto and Rochester have both teams so strong as to cause alarm. Also fans in the R.I. town believe the Grays have been especially fitted for the latter-day position, the coming season. Further they are going to unusual lengths in demonstrating their dissatisfaction. The regulars, who out whom there would be no team, park or anything else, figure that they have a right to get a run for their money. A section of them, however, are willing to stand by and say nothing, and at the same time spend nothing at all, according to one Providence writer. The more demonstrative of the fans are because the club is owned in Boston by men who do not take a real live interest in the cause of the fans, and charges that the management has gathered a bunch of rust leaguers and high school boys, who won't have a chance to make good in Eastern League company.

A valuable pacer was lost to the Canadian racing field when the five-year-old bay mare, Jennie Hal, by Hal B, owned by A. W. Colman of Sunderland, broke her leg at the Midland meet. She was a green performer, but had a mark on the dirt at 215 and a half in the mile. She will possibly be saved for the stud.

As C. J. Fitzgerald has resigned the position of presiding judge on the Jockey Club tracks in order to devote his time to other pursuits, the N. Y. Sun hopes C. H. Pettigill will be promoted to this important post. He has been a starter, handicapper, clerk of the scales, racing secretary, and at the same time a reputation for honesty and ability that is world-wide. He has been associated with the game since 1880, and has been the late Clarence McDowell and Mr. Fitzgerald, serving for many years in the capacity and also performing similar duties at the Emeryville track in California during the winter season.

Mr. Pettigill, who is still in the city, is enjoying vigorous health and has perfect eyesight. Turfmen are glad to hear that he should succeed Judge Fitzgerald.

Sam Langford practically admits that he has graduated from the middleweight class because he doesn't relish cutting down his weight to make his pounds ring. Langford believes he has a chance to fight Jack Johnson for the heavy-weight title and is going to build up his weight this week to prepare for his 20 round mill with the champion.

Mr. Jeanette stopped McVey two years ago in Paris in a fifty-round fight, which occurred two months after the fight, which pointed Jeanette in a 20-round bout. If Langford can knock McVey out, and if Johnson must fight the Boston Tar Baby will be made clear.

The U. S. National Lawn Tennis Association sent a challenge for the Davis Cup about three weeks ago. A challenge was issued to the U. Lang and Wildfong Shake Hands—Then Cops Take Charge

HAMILTON, Feb. 27.—The police carried out their threat and refused to allow the boxing match between Edward Lang of Toronto and Clayton Wildfong of Berlin, which was to have been staged at the Britannia Rink to-night. The men went into the ring and shook hands and the deputy chief police then appeared proceedings and intimated that both principals were under arrest. They were conveyed to the city hall and there held out in $500 each. Their case will come before the magistrate in the morning and as his worship has already expressed the opinion that they were going to engage in a prize fight and that they would be compelled to punish them if they came before him, a conviction seems to be certain. H. McBride, Buffalo, was the referee.

It is stated that the Hamilton Bowling and Athletic Club, under whose auspices the bout was billed, will fight the case thru to the appeal court to get a definite decision as to the legality of holding sporting bouts in this city.

The preliminary bout was between Clarence Crumpton and Jack Murphy, 115 pounds; Pete Scott and Hank Dawson, 125 pounds; and Beef Britton and S. Will. With the exception of the last affair the boxing was mediocre and when the boys had gone three rounds it was obvious they had had enough. In the battle between Britton and Willcox, the crowd that numbered about 200, saw a little return for their money. The men were very even for the first two rounds and in the third and last round they started mixing it. Willcox had Britton wobbly and opened up, with the result the Britton managed to catch him a clip that nearly put him out. No decisions were given in any of the matches.
