CITY ROADWAYS MAKING PROGRESS

Sherbourne-Parliament to Be Finished Before Exhibition Opens.

According to information obtained from the works department yesterday it is confidently expected that the temporary roadbed between Sherbourne street and Parliament street will be completed before the Exhibition. By the end of next week the section between Parliament and Glen road, about $30 feet of the 1,500 feet macadam roadway, should be finished, stated G. G. Powell, deputy city engineer. Grading started Wednesday on the portion between Glen road and Sherbourne. What has been holding matters rack is the filling.

A report by Works Commissioner Harris to Mayor Church on the matter states that no time is being lost towards completion of the work.

CITY TAKING TIME

Commissioners to Report on Necessary Car Expenditure for 1921.

Expenditure of $5,000,000 for proper car equipment, etc., in view of the city taking over the street railway in 1921, and making necessary car line extensions is being reported upon by Commissioners Harris and Bradshaw, states Mayor Church. It is considered wise to take time by the forelock, for there is a heavy demand in Europe for steel, and it is questionable if the price would be lower several years from now. A car factory and other equipment will have to be provided.

An extension of civic car lines will be necessary, and the mayor stated a bylaw will be submitted to the people to vote upon in January next in view of 1921.

A record for the year was established in July in the matter of deaths from violent causes in Toronto. Of the 34 listed the number of people found dead or suddenly stricken was 11, six were auto victims, four died from falls, two suicided, one was electrocuted, one crushed, one died from burns, one was poisoned, one was killed by a street car and a baby was accidentally smothered. There were 362 burials, compared with 403 in the corresponding month in 1918.

Toronto's fire bill for July was $33,-408. The customs department of the port of Toronto received approximately $3,075,000 as the duty paid upon goods passing thru the city during the month.
