LONDON BOYS AT CAMP NIAGARA

Major-General Hutton Praises Sixth Field Battery-Camp Notes,

Camp Niagara-on-the-Lake, June 29. -[Special.]—The major-general in command of the Canadian forces paid his official visit to Niagara Camp on Tuesday, 26th inst., and first inspected the lines, beginning with the Artillery Brigade, and we were pleased to hear of special praise for the good condition of our lines, the Sixth Field Battery, of London, standing second to none in this respect-in fact, they were complimented as being the cleanest and most orderly battery along the line, while their field maneuvers were only excelled by the regulars from "A" School, King-Special mention was made of the officers' reports, and the regular commercial enterprise in which the routine business in connection with the efficient orderly clerkship was conducted. The major-general is very much pleased with Niagara Camp, and the Sixth Field Battery has profited well by the example set in the encamp-ment previously held in London, and by the good conduct of "A" Battery, Kingston, who are encamped on our right flank. The London boys are very jubilant over their success in proving themselves proficient in the eyes of the major-general. They celebrated the occasion by holding a mammoth campfire last evening, when an amusement committee, with Lieut. J. L. Fitzgerald as chairman, entertained its own members and many from the neighboring batteries and battalions to a concert, proclaimed by all to be the best held in camp so far.

CAMP NOTES.

Lieut. Fitzgerald is the most popular officer in the First Brigade.

Sergt.-Instructor George Henderson, the crack instructor of "A" Battery, Kingston, is attached as our drill instructor, and the fine showing made by the Sixth is largely due to his untiring efforts for the welfare of the battery. He is a great favorite with the boys Sergt.-Major Hyman and Quarter- Keeep Minard's Liniment in the House

master-Sergt. Irvine are kept very busy performing their respective duties. We had an invitation to go to Chat ham with the Twenty-fifth Battalion for the First of July, but could not make satisfactory arrangements.

Sergt. T. Mackintosh has charge of the orderly room, and is also captain of the brigade baseball team. Mr. Fred Cooper, of Boston, formerly of London, was one of our guests last Sunday. A great many Americans came over to spend the day in camp. The Queen's Own, Royal Grenadiers and Forty-eighth Highlanders, of Toalong, also the Thirteenth, of Hamilton, and Thirty-eighth (Dufferin Rifles) arrive this evening, and take part in the sham battle at Queenston row. The Forty-eighth Highlanders' Band will be entertained by our officers this evening.

AT THE LUNCH COUNTER.

"I'll take some strawberry short-cake," said the man with the brick-colored complexion; "with whipped "I'll have a couple of buns," said the sallow-faced man on the next stool. "Don't you like strawberry short-cake?" asked the ruddy-complexioned "Yes, you bet I do," said the other.

"Yes, you bet I do, said the other."
"Why don't you eat it then?"
"I'm afraid to," said the sallowfaced man. "It disagrees with me."
"I wouldn't stop at a little thing like that if I were you," said the brick-

"You would if you had a stomach like mine," said the sallow-faced in-"No. sir," said the other, "I'm sorry to contradict you, but I most certainly would not." "Why not?" asked the sallow-faced "Well, in the first place, I wouldn't have a stomach like yours long," said the brick-complexioned gentleman.

"I'd take a Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablet,

Your stomach takes a holiday, and by and by it can start work again as good as new." "You seem to know all about it," said the sallow-faced man. "I ought to," said the ruddy-faced gentleman, scraping up the remains the strawberry shortcake on his ate. "I take one after every meal plate. "I take one after every meal or I'd be as bad as you are." "And you're sure they work?" "I eat everthing that comes along,"

"Give me one and take another piece of strawberry shortcake with me." said the sallow-faced man.
"Sure," said the brick-complexioned friend. "But the next drug store you pass you go in and invest fifty cents in a whole box. All druggists sell Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets."
