MAMILTON, July 22.—Richardson's liberality was responsible for Hamilton's victory over Saginaw in the first of the three-game series today. The visiting pitcher walked three batsmen, and each scored. The Tigers were outlit, but they brought their heavy artiliery into action immediately on top of the passes handed out by Richardson. Schwartje, formerly with Saginaw, held his former teammates in check in every inning but the third, when they got three hits and two runs. Purcell's one-hand catch was the feature. KITCHENER, July 22.—The Beavers came from behind and won from the Custers this afternoon by a score of. 2 to 1. It was the snapplest game of 2 to 1. It was the snapplest game of the season being featured by spectacular fielding by Beatty, Morgan and Hooker, and no less than five fast double plays. Sharp only allowed three scattered hits, while Winters was hit for six singles and a double. He hit Kyle with the ball, when the bases were filled after the score had been tied and forced in the winning run. the winning run.
Umpire Rhue officiated, and many of his decisions were questioned and most unsatisfactory. The score:

PLAYERS INSIST ON KNOTTY'S RETURN, AND PEPPERY ONE DOES

BRANTFORD, July 22.-Knotty Lee is back at the helm of the Red Sox, and worries of fans and management have disappeared. Knotty agement have disappeared. Knotty came back to town to arrange for removal of his belongings, and was waited on by the team almost without exception. They asked him to come back, and five of them declared they, too, would quit unless he resumed the helm. As a result of this, plus the urging of the management and the general feeling of the fans, Knotty burled his feelings over a recent incident on the field, took over his uniform and was back on the bench in tonight's game. Dr. Frank Stone of Burlington, Wis., is doing the starting on the Western Canada Circuit.
