machines at Louisville, by which the weight of the public's money makes the favorite, showed that the new system, taken all in all, gives the bettor more favorable odds for his money. The price of the Derby favorite, Sir Cleges, to win-a little better than 4 to 1would have been little better than ? to 5 in an ordinary book. A $5 ticket on the winner, Stone Street, paid $123.60 to win, $37.90 for place and $14.50 to show. Sir Cleges was $11.10. for place and $8.50 to show. Dunvegan paid $11.10 to show. In the last race there were only two tickets on Nancy to show and $5 brought back $407 to each of the lucky buyers.

For a combination of misery yesterday morning at the Woodbine could hardly be beaten. It drizzled, it blew and the chilliness was penetrating. In addition orto is not at the bottom of the heap by personal weakness, but rather on acthe strength of the other teams. Managers thruout the circuit freely admit that the present aggregation of clubs in the Eastern League are stronger than at any time in the history. of the organization, Toronto probably excepted. The league this year composed of so many former major league stars, is not far behind the big show for speed. Manager Smith of Buffalo, Ruckenberger of Rochester, and Jimmy Casey of Montreal declare that the league is certainly faster by a great ways than it was ten years ago. All three were in the circuit about that time, Smith playing with Rochester, when Buckenberger was managing the team and Jim Casey was picking foul flies off the bicycle track. Casey deence in the sped of this league and the national League clubs. Jimmy ought to know if any one does.
