

SECTARIANISM A
STUMBLING BLOCK
TO RELIGIOUS LIVES

Then the pastor of a church may find the church almost one way because it was so aimed before, and he is aiming another way. It is dwelling on the remnants of a movement which still sometimes rears its head. That movement is the movement of violent conversions, based on the doctrine of everlasting bliss and everlasting punishment. Ask the people what is the purpose of the church, and they say it is to save souls—to save them from hell and for heaven—through the process of violent conversion. But you never heard of a violent conversion in a heathen country. Why? Because you can't convert a man if he hasn't anything in his heart and soul to be converted to. You must get into the heathen's mind ideas of righteousness and religion and faith and hope, so you do with your own people. He will come to the memory of what you put there in youth, and you will have a violent conversion. The business of the church is not to revive ideas, but to put them there; it is not to evangelize those who have fallen from the ideal, so much as it is to make it possible for men to grow up without wandering away. I do not believe any man has to go to the devil before he can find God.

Heaven and Hell

Is there a heaven and a hell? Have you lived, enjoyed, repented? Can we preach the doctrine of heaven and hell? We cannot believe it as Jonathan Edwards did. But do we believe in a heaven of communion with God and a hell of separation from Him? They who have lived do believe in a heaven of communion with God. "Blessed are the pure in heart," "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness." We cannot believe in a hell who says: "You are My elect—come up, you are damned—go down." We believe there is a God who goes out to find the man who is alone, who is lost, who is in hell—and bring him back to the fold. We cannot feel in sympathy with the idea of trying to save men from God, but to save them from themselves, and we feel that we are working with God when we seek to do it. Is that right?

Regarding the impatience sometimes shown in the churches because more attention is not given to the religious life, Mr. Colbo said they could not produce more than there were people fitted to be subjects. The stress and strain must be to do the same as the people are doing in their homes—put into the life of the child a knowledge of the love of God. Last week Mr. Colbo said: "We have had violent conversions here," said Mr. Colbo. "They do not always take place in the church service, but the business of the church is the culture of the religious life."

Sectarianism Breaking Down

Mr. Colbo said he did not like to dwell upon the negative side, as he was doing in this discourse. What is the heart of the church today? He had talked with Baptists, Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and Roman Catholics, and he told him that he gave evidence that there is a deep seated desire in their hearts to help men to the love of God. He believed that this is the work of God, and that we are coming to the time of the breaking down of the barriers of institutions—by evolution or revolution—bringing in an institution that will be what Jesus meant by the kingdom of God. Men and women, said the speaker, believe that if you can, hope, and love, and do good, you will be saved. Some do not care. Some do not give to the support of the church they attend. But if you have it in your heart to work and hope and pray you will have an institution that stands for the work of Jesus, and for those ordinances which stand for the good of humanity and the purpose of God—not for a sect or a denomination. I don't ask you to think as I think, but accept my thought as a contribution to the thought of the church. Men are discontented, excepted into a sectarian institution. Men feel that they want to be associated with everything that is advancing the religious life of the day.

In the course of his discourse Mr. Colbo stated, in addition to the fact that he had received an application for the vacant pulpit if he left it, he had also received a call himself from another church.

LAST NIGHT'S SERMON

Who Are Christians?

At last evening's service Rev. Mr. Colbo discussed the question of how men receive Jesus and what it is that determines whether we are Christians or not. His text was the passage describing how Jesus took a little child in His arms and said: "Little child in His name—receive Him; and whoever receives Him, not Him but the Father who sent Him."

There is in the human mind, he said, a tendency to ask questions and Jesus

NOBODY IS EXEMPT

A New Preparation Which Every-one Will Need Sooner or Later.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which, in many cases, are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. The organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good. Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stunt's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They purify the blood, cleanse and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help, and you will have no trouble.

It's a common-sense medicine and a common-sense treatment, and it will cure every case. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Go about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way. We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—Mrs. E. M. Fitch, of Dyers' Cove, Wis., says:

"I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for I had a chronic pain in my stomach, and I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

R. R. Willard, Oshawa, Ia., says: "Mr. Stunt's Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia, from which he suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your Dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered from Dyspepsia, but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly send you—this is the best way to do."
