

The Season of Brides and Roses

These surely are busy days—days filled with shopping, planning and arranging.

Your Slippers should be one of the charms of your costume, and they surely will be if you allow us to help you select them.

There are Slippers which we ordered just for you and other happy brides—handsome in delicate shades of blue and pink and in plain white. There are dainty white street Pumps of leather and fabric, Sport Shoes and Oxfords.

Don't wait till the last minute. That's the proverbially busy time.

If you want colors to match your gown, bring in a sample of the material and see how perfectly it can be matched.

Waterbury & Ring, Limited

King Street Union Street Main Street

Limited Quantity SLACK for Steam Use

Prompt Delivery Prices on Application

CONSUMERS' COAL

Frank Skinner

—Importer of Millinery—
—60 KING STREET—

Desirable Millinery for Present Wear

Panamas
Leghorns
Children's Dress Hats
Georgette Crepes
in all New Light Shades.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. H. M. Hoffman, who last year labored as a student-pastor at Middleboro, N.B., and vicinity, has taken up the work on the new field at Perth created by the readjustment of the Andover and Arthurville fields. He will serve the churches at Perth, Rowena and Forest Glen, as well as other points where there is now no organized work.

Rev. H. D. Worden is already seeing the fruit of his labors on the Titusville field. On June 10, six were baptized at Salt Springs, and two others were received on experience. Two, also, have been received on experience at Smithtown.

Rev. C. S. Young has accepted a call from the churches on the Millstream field, and will begin his work there on the second Sunday in July. His pastorate at Plaster Rock has been eminently successful.

Rev. Christopher Burnett, a one time pastor of the Leinster street church, St. John, is now pastor of the Maranatha Baptist church of Detroit, and will soon complete the fifth year of his pastorate. Under his leadership the church has enjoyed great prosperity. It is now preparing to enter upon building operations. A parsonage and house of worship will be erected on a new site purchased.

We recently mentioned, in this column, the dedication of a new house of worship for the Montauk avenue Baptist church of New London, Conn., of which Rev. H. F. Adams is the energetic pastor. Pastor Adams expects to spend his vacation in these provinces. For the last two Sundays of July he will occupy the pulpit of the First church of Truro. He is a former pastor of that church. The first two Sundays in August will be spent in Fredericton.

Dr. Charles A. Eaton is one of the best-loved pastors in Greater New York. The Madison avenue church is devoted to him and loyal to his leadership. Long before President Wilson had reached the decision that neutrality was no longer possible, the Madison avenue note in regard to the nation's duty. And the pastor's stand had been firmly supported by the church.

Capt. Arthur H. Chute, of Wolville, who was invalided home after many months at the front, is now in New York. He recently delivered a lecture before the Madison avenue church on "Experiences at the Front." Capt. Chute is a son of Professor A. C. Chute of Acadia.

Rev. W. C. Goucher recently enjoyed a two weeks' trip to New York. He was present at the Commencement exercises of Columbia University, where the degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred upon his son.

In the list of casualties published on Monday morning we regretted to find the name of J. Stanley Millett among those reported as "killed in action." Mr. Millett received the degree of B. A. at Acadia a year ago, and had dedicated his life to the service of God.

The following is from the Baptist Times of London: Major MacDonald, of course, our esteemed editor, is a member of the Baptist church, which has been made the religious centre of Canadian Baptists in London, invited seventy-five overseas men to an "at home" on Tuesday evening, May 29. There were representatives from all parts of the dominion among them. Mr. MacDonald, a Baptist minister who is serving in the ranks. Major MacDonald, who is director of chaplains in the London area, was unable to be present on account of illness, but sent a cordial letter of appreciation.

The following from a St. Stephen paper will be of interest to many of our readers. Dr. Goucher is a son of Rev. W. C. Goucher, of St. Stephen, and a graduate of Acadia, of the class of 1909. "The friends of Frederick Shand Goucher will be pleased to learn that at the commencement exercises of Columbia University held in New York last week, he had conferred upon him the degree of doctor of philosophy in the department of pure science, his major subject being physics. The results of Mr. Goucher's research work have received public recognition by some of the leading scientists of the day, among them being Dr. Robert Andrews Millikan, professor of physics in Chicago University, and Professor McClellan, of Toronto University. Mr. Goucher's services are being retained at Columbia for next year to continue his work in research, collaborating with Professor Bergen Davis, of the university."

We have received a copy of a Folkestone, Eng. paper, which contains an account of a meeting in the interests of the Sailors' Society. Among the speakers were Capt. W. F. Parker, who is stationed there as chaplain with the Canadian troops. He paid high tribute to what had been done for the welfare of the Canadians in Folkestone, in the following words: "I am glad to notice what you have done and are doing in this town of Folkestone for our Canadian lads. What I have seen is sufficient to gladden many a mother's heart in Canada. You have received them with open arms; you have given them a taste of good old English home life. I am sure God's blessing will rest abundantly on this town of Folkestone for what you have done in the direction of keeping our boys from the ways of vice and drink. What you have done will never be forgotten."

THOUSAND ZIONISTS

MEET IN BALTIMORE

Appeal to Washington to Recognize Palestine's Autonomy

Insurgents Are Active—President Friedmanwald in Address Warns Them They Must Work Within Organization

Baltimore, June 27.—The white and blue flag of Zion, with its Star of David, floats over Baltimore's hotels and the gathering places of more than 1,000 Zionists, who are here from every state in the union for the twentieth annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists, which opened this afternoon at the Academy of Music. Palestine, which the Zionists would have recognized as the home of the Jewish nation, is represented by several delegates.

Dr. Harry Friedmanwald, president of the Federation, opened the convention. Mayor Preston welcomed the delegates and Dr. Stephen S. Wise, New York, chairman of the provisional Zionist committee, sounded the keynote when he bade defiance to the opponents of Jewish nationalism. He warned Zionists to be careful when selecting other leaders not to trust their cause in untried hands. Big mass meetings were held tonight in the academy, the Maryland Theatre, and the auditorium.

Some of the notable delegates are: Justice Brandeis of the United States supreme court, Judge W. Macdonald of the United States circuit court of Chicago, Louis Lipsky, editor of The Macabean, and executive head of the Federation, Dr. Schmarny Levin, a member of the first Russian Duma; Dr. Ben Zion Mossinson, principal of the gymnasium of Jaffa, Habi H. Abramowitz of Montreal, the Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskopf of Philadelphia, and Alfred Schrier, president of the Middle Atlantic States Federation of Young Men's Jewish Associations.

One of the early steps to be taken by the convention will be an appeal to the government at Washington to recognize Palestine as an autonomous home for the Jewish nation. The government will be asked to recognize the Jewish nation as one of those oppressed smaller nationalities which must have an opportunity to assert themselves after the war. Furthermore, they will ask the movement internationally by calling upon their organizations in the warring and few neutral countries to present similar demands to their respective governments.

There are in the convention two opposing elements, one of them connected with the men in office, and the other lined up against the means to be employed for the end sought after. Because of this variance in point of view, policy and method the leaders do not properly represent Zionist sentiment and desires. Disturbances in the organization are, therefore, the natural consequence. Remove the cause, make the organization truly representative and democratic, permit the fortification of representative Zionists in the direction of Zionist affairs, invite full expression of opinion, allow full freedom of action, (not prejudicial to efficiency), and the undercurrent of dissatisfaction and bitterness will disappear.

In the course of Dr. Wise's address he said:

"Zionists will ask no favors from the American Jewish Congress, nor yet from any congress, Jewish or non-Jewish. The American Jewish Congress, however, it be constituted, and even if the very Zionist who have been elected to its membership should withdraw therefrom, would still be a luminous proof of the potency of the Zionist ideal in transforming the soul of the Jewish people; and as for those who now threaten to withdraw or to absent themselves from the American Jewish Congress, let me remind those gentlemen that the American Jewish Congress is to be the voice of the Jewish people, and we will not suffer our national center."

Dr. Friedmanwald said:

"We are keenly sensible that, whatever may be the opportunities open to the Jewish people to establish a home in Palestine after the war is over, whether these opportunities be larger or smaller, the task before us is great. But Zionism has room for but one organization. All who have the object of Zion in their hearts owe it to themselves and to all others who are in agreement with the Zionist ideal to unite in this great organization. There is no room for them to work outside without robbing the movement of the strength which unity alone can give."

Those who conceive of working independently through individuals or through small groups deceive themselves, as from the American Jewish Congress, there is room for but one Zionist organization, world-wide and embracing every Jew, and every individual in sympathy with its purpose."

At a mass meeting held at the Academy tonight Judge Mack, the chairman, announced the contributions to the Zionist fund:

Philadelphia, $250,000; Justice Brandeis, $100,000; Joseph Pels, property worth $20,000; San Francisco, $80,000; Los Angeles, $5,000; Ohio, $35,000; Virginia, $5,000; Buffalo, $1,000; Sioux City, $5,000; Chicago, $82,000.

WOMEN ARE LOST

London, June 26.—The sinking of the Norwegian ship, the Joseph Pels, probably worth $20,000, is reported in a Central News dispatch from Copenhagen. Fifteen of those on board, including five women, were missing. The Swedish steamer Gothia has been sunk. Four men and two women are missing.

HAD BOILS

For Six Months

B. B. B. DROVE THEM AWAY

When the blood becomes impure the various symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, sores, etc., and to get rid of these troubles you must cleanse the blood thoroughly with a good blood remedy.

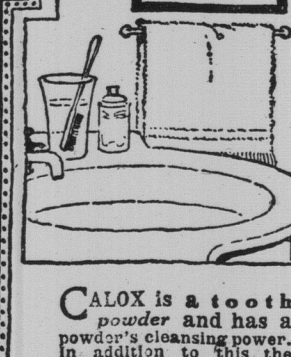

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market today is Burdock Blood Bitters.

Thousands of people from one end of Canada to the other have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but words of praise for its cleansing properties.

Mr. Rufus Beers, Upper Main River, N. B., writes: "I want to say a few words about your medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters. I had boils for over six months and sometimes was so bad I could not work. I tried all kinds of cures but nothing would drive them away for good until I took B. B. B. In a short time I was all better. It is a dandy medicine. I keep it in the house all the time."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The W. T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., but so well and favorably is it known that there are many imitations on the market. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

USE THE WANT AD. WAY

CALOX

THE OXYGEN TOOTH POWDER

25c. 50c.

Youthful, Beautiful Skin Easy to Have

You may be as healthy as a bird in the air and still have a poor complexion. The skin is the largest organ of the body, and it is the first line of defense against the elements. It is the first line of defense against the elements. It is the first line of defense against the elements.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulitised coconut oil is the best for the hair. It is pure and contains no harmful chemicals. It is the best for the hair. It is pure and contains no harmful chemicals.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it is soft, fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitised coconut oil at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last every one in the family for months.

terprise to become an international charity. Charity is for a broken, disabled individual, but the Jew is not broken, disabled or charity cases. He is a strong, healthy, renaissance people spurs charity as the solution of its problem. It asks, and it will be satisfied with, nothing less than the best. It is the Jew's right to be honorable and self-respecting people.

President Friedmanwald said:

"We are keenly sensible that, whatever may be the opportunities open to the Jewish people to establish a home in Palestine after the war is over, whether these opportunities be larger or smaller, the task before us is great. But Zionism has room for but one organization. All who have the object of Zion in their hearts owe it to themselves and to all others who are in agreement with the Zionist ideal to unite in this great organization. There is no room for them to work outside without robbing the movement of the strength which unity alone can give."

Those who conceive of working independently through individuals or through small groups deceive themselves, as from the American Jewish Congress, there is room for but one Zionist organization, world-wide and embracing every Jew, and every individual in sympathy with its purpose."

At a mass meeting held at the Academy tonight Judge Mack, the chairman, announced the contributions to the Zionist fund:

Philadelphia, $250,000; Justice Brandeis, $100,000; Joseph Pels, property worth $20,000; San Francisco, $80,000; Los Angeles, $5,000; Ohio, $35,000; Virginia, $5,000; Buffalo, $1,000; Sioux City, $5,000; Chicago, $82,000.

WOMEN ARE LOST

London, June 26.—The sinking of the Norwegian ship, the Joseph Pels, probably worth $20,000, is reported in a Central News dispatch from Copenhagen. Fifteen of those on board, including five women, were missing. The Swedish steamer Gothia has been sunk. Four men and two women are missing.

HAD BOILS

For Six Months

B. B. B. DROVE THEM AWAY

When the blood becomes impure the various symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, sores, etc., and to get rid of these troubles you must cleanse the blood thoroughly with a good blood remedy.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market today is Burdock Blood Bitters.

Thousands of people from one end of Canada to the other have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but words of praise for its cleansing properties.

Mr. Rufus Beers, Upper Main River, N. B., writes: "I want to say a few words about your medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters. I had boils for over six months and sometimes was so bad I could not work. I tried all kinds of cures but nothing would drive them away for good until I took B. B. B. In a short time I was all better. It is a dandy medicine. I keep it in the house all the time."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The W. T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., but so well and favorably is it known that there are many imitations on the market. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

USE THE WANT AD. WAY

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON LTD.

KING STREET GERMAIN ST. MARKET SQ.

WARM WEATHER HEADWEAR

Sport and Outing Hats

FOR THE HOLIDAY

Panamas
Motoring
Boating and
Sport Hats

All the New Colors and Most Attractive Shapes

Also a Number of Special Values in

OUTING HATS
DUCK, KHAKEE
KOOL AND
BODY HATS
50c. and $1.00 each

As You Plan the Dainty Frocks for the Holiday Trip, be Sure As You Plan the Dainty Frocks for the Holiday Trip, be Sure

MILINERY DEPARTMENT

New Fabrics Just Arrived in Our Dress Goods Department

NEW PALM BEACH CLOTH—Dust-shedding, good wearing, and a splendid tub material, natural shades, 38 in. wide, $1.50; 50 in. wide, $2.50; 50 in. wide, $3.50; 50 in. wide, $4.50.

NEW OVERCHECK SHEPHERD GRASS—Black and white with green overcheck, black and white with tan overcheck, 56 in. wide, $2.00 yard.

NEW POLO CLOTH—Remarkable values—30 in. wide, $1.50; 50 in. wide, $2.50; 50 in. wide, $3.50; 50 in. wide, $4.50.

NEW SCOTCH TWEEDS—In Heather and salt and pepper effects, 56 in. wide, $1.75, $2.10 and $2.25 yard.

DRESS DEPT.—GROUND FLOOR

Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited

Roots' Mission To Petrograd

His Influence May Decide Momentous Issues

Greatest Diplomatic Task

His Duty to Assist in Bringing Order Out of Chaos For Benefit of Allied War Interests

It may be that F. Cullifly Owen, says the Toronto Mail and Empire, does not exaggerate when he says that Elihu Root, who has arrived at the Russian capital, will have the greatest task upon his hands ever entrusted to a diplomat or plenipotentiary. For it is that it is Elihu Root, said by Theodore Roosevelt to be the greatest man he ever met, and conceded generally to be one of the great characters and intellects of the day. When he left the United States he had fresh instructions. A cable sent by President Wilson since Root's departure was delayed for several weeks. It will be impossible to wait for weeks or even for days. The whole thing will be up to Elihu Root, and we look to him more expectantly than to any other allied statesman to straighten things out in Russia if they have not gone so far that they cannot be straightened out.

A Tremendous Task.

Fortunately Root is a man big enough for the job. He carries with him to Russia a great credit. He knows the peril of the present Russian situation. He knows that all his efforts must be directed to keeping Russia a member of the Entente and ensuring a vigorous prosecution of the war. Any other duties are subservient to this, and the weight of his character and the financial clout he holds will be applied to this end. He will not be rash, or if he is rash it will be for the first time in his life. Neither will he establish a precedent by showing leniency. He may be justly proud of his task. One of his first difficulties will be to divest the Russian mind of the notion that President Wilson, speaking for the United States, declared for a war without annexations and without indemnities. This is a phrase which has become popular in Russia since the revolution. It has a human origin, but Russian socialists, anarchists and pro-Germans are quoting with approval President Wilson's remarks to the same effect.

An Illusion to Be Dispelled.

It will be the duty of Elihu Root to point out to the Russian government that President Wilson's speech, in which these words occur, was meant to apply to the object of the United States in entering the war. He said that the United States was not fighting for the annexation of new territory, neither was it struggling in the hope of wringing an indemnity out of Germany. This is far from saying that there should be no annexations on the part of other Entente Powers or that none of them is entitled to indemnity. Indeed a message received a few days ago by the Russian people makes this plain. This is the message whose delivery was delayed for several weeks. That it was only made public after Root arrived is significant. The Germans in Russia, or those favorable to the German cause, were not all removed when Rasputin was assassinated and the Czarina made a prisoner.

Speaks for the Allies.

More vital than the duty of calling attention to what the United States wants in the war will be that perhaps of deciding which of the alternatives the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation the Entente Powers will adopt, for we may assume that Root will speak not only for the United States, but for the Allies. He may have to decide which faction will be recognized by the government he represents. He may have to conclude that the Russian situation