Trojans Clash With Nationals Tonight

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—Johnny Weismuller, lanky aquatic star of the Illinois Athletic Club, was credited today with swimming the fastest 100 yards in history. This was revealed when the Amateur Athletic Union received telegraphic requests from Charles A. Dean, I. A. C. official, to recognize a mark of 49 4-5 seconds, made last night, and bettering Weismuller's own accepted world's record by two and one-fifth seconds.

Since the performance was made in a 20-yard pool it cannot be officially

'il see you!

Life and men-Sylvia Fleming played against them and saw them, and around the baize tables of Monte Carlo she was called The Reckless Lady.

DANCERS

Reckless? She was a mother whose first gamble and loss was love. Then for fifteen years she gambled for maney that kept her child; and when the man who had admired her loved her daughter instead, the Reckless Lady made her last great gamble against the fate that enmeshed the girl. And at Fate she cried "I'll see you!"

Where but in Monte Carlo could such a tale be set?
