

TORY SUCCEEDS DOUGLAS AS N. S. LIEUT. GOVERNOR

Appointee Well Known in Political and Insurance Circles

ELECTED LEGISLATOR FROM GUYSBORO CO.

Was Minister Without Portfolio in 1923 Armstrong Government

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—His Honor James Robson Douglas, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia, has resigned, and his resignation has been accepted by the government. James Cranswick Tory, former minister without portfolio in the late administration of Premier Armstrong, former Premier of Nova Scotia, has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor in succession to former Lieutenant-Governor Douglas. Official announcement to this effect was made late this afternoon.

HON. JAMES R. DOUGLAS
Former Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, who has resigned office. He is succeeded by James C. Tory.

Former Lieutenant-Governor Douglas was sworn in on January 29 last succeeding former Lieutenant-Governor MacCallum Grant.

The newly appointed Lieutenant-Governor is a Liberal member in the Nova Scotia legislature for the constituency of Guysboro, and is well known in insurance circles in the Province and in Montreal.

BORN IN GUYSBORO.

HALIFAX, Sept. 24.—Hon. James Cranswick Tory, was born at Port Shephard, Guysboro county, on October 24, 1862, the son of Robert Kirk and Anora (Perguson) Tory. He was educated at the common school, Guysboro Academy, and at the Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal. After a commercial experience in Guysboro, he joined the staff of the Sun Life Assurance Company, going to the West Indies as a special representative in 1891, and the following year was appointed superintendent there. In 1895 he was appointed manager for Michigan, and returned to Canada in 1897 as superintendent of agencies with headquarters at Montreal. In 1901 he was promoted to be general manager of the Western Foreign Department of the company, and in 1915 was appointed to his present position, that of general manager of agencies, at the home office of the company in Montreal.

FIRST ELECTED IN 1911.

He was first elected to the Nova Scotia legislature from Guysboro in 1911, and was re-elected in 1916 and 1920. He was appointed minister without portfolio in the Armstrong Government in 1923. He is also a member of the Montreal Board of Trade, a member of the Westmount Board of School Commissioners and a governor of Wesleyan Theological College.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Proof of the oft repeated statement that nature tries to balance the sexes following war, with the birth of more boys than girls, is evidenced by the report of a maternity hospital here. The report shows that in 1913, 440 boys to 430 girls were born in the hospital, while in 1918 the figures were 776 boys to 667 girls.

MEIGHEN CONFIDENT OF VICTORY IN EAST

Tells Campbellton Throng That Liberals Won't Get a Seat in B. C.

CAMPBELLTON, Sept. 24.—Although the Maritime Provinces schedule of meetings to be addressed by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen was exhausted at Saint John last night the Conservative leader was not to cross the border into Quebec without making another speech.

When the train on which Mr. Meighen was traveling arrived here at 7.30 this evening a crowd was at the station to hear him.

Although the shades of night were falling fast and it was raining, Mr. Meighen stepped from his car, mounted a convenient baggage truck and made a speech of some minutes' duration. He made optimistic reference to the probable result on October 29 and told his listeners that he had today received word from British Columbia to the effect that the Liberals would not win a seat in that province.

Mr. Meighen declared that if the government felt satisfied at conditions in the country he was equally so. He left the Maritimes with a feeling of confidence in the result of election in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

FATHER IS HELD AS SLAYER OF GIRL

Indicted by Jury For Throwing Acid, Causing Death of Daughter.

Abraham Lepitz, 48, of St. Albans, Staten Island, was indicted for murder in the first degree by the Queens Grand Jury for causing the death of his daughter, Mrs. Marion Preth, 22 years old, by burning her with sulphuric acid. She died in the Jamaica Hospital on Sept. 17, after suffering for three weeks from burns.

On the day Mrs. Preth died her father was discharged from the hospital, cured from burns caused when he spilled the acid on himself. District Attorney Richard S. Newcombe, learning of Mrs. Preth's death, ordered an investigation and Lepitz's arrest followed.

According to a statement by Mrs. Preth before her death, her father and mother were divorced when she was young. She was placed with a family and was known as Marion Greenberg.

In 1923 Mrs. Preth found her father in comfortable circumstances in Manhattan. She went with her father to live in St. Albans and after her marriage last May, he lived at her home. He is said to have thrown acid at her following a disagreement over breakfast.

BELIEVE ARRESTED MAN IS ANDERSON

Police Hold Prisoner in Florida Jail Awaiting Investigation.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., Sept. 25.—A man, believed by police to be George (Dutch) Anderson, former accomplice of Gerald Chapman, but who gave his name as B. L. Bullman, former Mayor of Williamstown, W. Va., and once the head of an electric company at Marietta, Ohio, has been arrested here.

Police said they received a tip that the man believed to be Anderson was on his way to this city and his arrest followed. He was ordered held in jail pending identification.

The man, who was well dressed, had a number of Masonic cards and declared he was a Mason, but on being questioned by City Judge Walker and other Masons gave evasive and unsatisfactory answers and could not establish connection with a Masonic lodge.

Fingerprints of the prisoner were said to tally with those of Anderson. Telegrams were sent to federal officials in Atlanta.

PORRIDGE LOSING FAVOR

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 24.—Porridge, the famous old time Scottish food, seems to be passing. The amount consumed today is less than half that consumed 25 years ago, says a grocer's report. Porridge, as eaten in Scotland, is made from ground oats, stirred in boiling water with salt added. No sugar is eaten with it as in England. Fish, ham and eggs are taking porridge's place.

POLICE MUST SWIM

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Every city has its drawbacks, even to policemen. Just now New York is putting into effect an order requiring that all policemen must know how to swim. The reason, Commissioner Enright explains, is that the city is surrounded by great expanses of water, and to be a truly proficient policeman, one must be able to rescue persons, who accidentally, or otherwise, fall into this water.
