port from W. Shires Fisher in an eloquent and forceful speech which was received with great applause.

Leo Beckwith, Rethay avenue, an employee of the Douglas Construction Company, Limited, received a minor injury to his right foot while at work in Dorchester street yesterday morning. He received treatment at the General Public Hospital where he will remain for a few days.

The St. John District Methodist Women's Missionary Society met yesterday in the church at Sussex, with Mrs. W. H. Barker presiding. Miss Rose Hopkins of St. John was elected superintendent of the district, and Mrs. L. B. Fenwick of Sussex was elected as her assistant. Mrs. John Sealy led the devotions in the afternoon, and an address was given by Mrs. C. E. Sanford. Miss Hazel White of Sussex was paid in district secretary-treasurer. Miss Gertrude Hamilton told of the work in Japan, and Hasako Kofke sang of that country sang songs in Japanese and English.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Osborne, 106 Queen street, were greatly surprised on Monday evening when friends called at their home and tendered them an album in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music and refreshments were served. Miss Tufts and Mrs. Kittie assisted the hosts.

The steamer Curlew, for several years during the war period and after, operated by the Canadian Government naval department from Halifax and recently sold to W. N. McDonald of Sydney yesterday arrived in port in command of her owner. She was well known here at one time and excited considerable interest along the waterfront.
