FINE NIGHT BUT IMPERIAL CROWDED

"To Please One Woman," a Strong Attraction and Proved Splendid Feature—Line-up of People For Second Show.

What would do to please a woman? Adam ate the forbidden fruit to please Eve. Samson was shorn of his strength and met death on account of Delilah. Marc Antony gave up honors at Rome to dally with Cleopatra. The pages of history are filled with accounts of man's sacrifice to satisfy woman's caprice. According to Lola Weber in her great picture "To Please One Woman" at the Imperial again today, it isn't only in his-

...tory that women exercise their charms for selfish purposes. Miss Weber in "To Please One Woman," her latest picture production gives a modern setting to the old story. The story deals with the havoc wrought by a certain rich, selfish woman who, having driven her husband to risk his all in her behalf, takes up her residence in a mansion near a rural seaside town to wait the result of his plunge. While there, she becomes interested in a young country doctor and, true to form, induces him to share her romance with the girl he has loved since boyhood. How matters finally adjust themselves happily is revealed in a film drama that is remarkable for its true-to-life and deep appeal.

A new beauty of the screen, Claire Windsor, plays the leading feminine role in "To Please One Woman," and the cast also includes Edward Burns, Mona Lisa, and Edith Kessler. Lola Weber wrote and directed the picture, which is a Paramount release.

Although the weather was of the lowest last evening the Imperial enjoyed line-up patronage so strong a magnet was the pictorial attraction. In point of quality "To Please One Woman" is very like "Male and Female," "The Pursue," "Don't Change Your Husband" and such super-films. Today again large patronage will doubtless be the order.

Tomorrow the Imperial presents the second of its big British productions, "Snow in the Desert," a London-made film featuring Violet Hopson and Stewart Rome, noted English players. In addition there will be genuine views of His Holiness Pope Benedict granting audience to the delegation of Knights of Columbus.

KNIFE IS DRIVEN THROUGH HIS BODY

Murder Victim Pulls 14-Inch Blade From Heart Before He Dies in Apartment.

New York, May 31.—Giovanni Aracca, thirty-six years old, formerly chef on the steamer Manchuria, was found dead in the doorway leading from his two-room apartment on the ground floor into the hallway at 294 West Thirtieth street.

The body was partly wrapped in a sheet. A fourteen-inch knife lay beside it. This had been plunged into his chest with such force that it passed through his body, making a wound in the back from which an inch or two of the knife had emerged.

Angelo Rauponi, a head waiter at the Waldorf-Astoria, who lives at the same address, stumbled over the body and notified Policeman Harry Saengerberg. Detectives Leef and Quinn were sent out to investigate.

According to the police theory, the chef lay in bed asleep, with a sheet wrapped around him for a nightgown, when the murderer drove the blade through him. Aracca, they think, had enough life left to enable him to reach the doorway and pull out the knife. No one heard or saw it, however, as far as the detectives could find, and they were dubious whether a man with a knife through his heart could muster the strength needed to free it.

In Aracca's room the detectives found several bottles of liquor and several legs of red wine. The walls of both rooms were covered with photographs of women, most of which had been taken in Italy. A considerable sum of money was found in Aracca's pockets, which had not been tampered with. A trunk in the room had apparently been ransacked. Several suits of clothes of different size were found, and it was learned from other tenants that Aracca had often shared his apartment with other men.

Angelo Grasso, agent for the building, told the police that Aracca had rented the apartment five months ago. He said that Aracca's visitors were principally women.

The driver of a milk truck reported to the West Thirtieth Street Station that at about 1:30 a. m. he had seen a man bareheaded and coatless run from the tenement house, turn east on West Thirtieth street and disappear.

LARGE "IF" HALTS MENNONITE TREK
All Ready for Mexico "If" They Can Sell Out for Cash.

Winnipeg, May 31.—The Mennonites are all prepared to go to Mexico, but there is a large "if" which is causing their delay. They want cash for their land and chattels, according to three elders of the Hague, Saskatchewan, Siskiwit, P. Wai, Benjamin Coertzen and Peter Wisner—now in Winnipeg.

They insist upon a minimum payment of $42 an acre for the 80,000 acres that are situated in one large block between Saskatoon and Prince Albert. They also want cash for 3,860 horses, 800 cows, 800 wagons, and a long list of farm implements, including fourteen tractors. The payment on the land alone would require immediate disbursement by the purchasers of $7,000,000.

A contract, it is stated, has been made with a United States railway for the transportation of the Mennonites to Mexico.

EVENT WITHOUT PRECEDENT.
An event without precedent in the history of the church has occurred at Bordeaux.

A young priest of the Order of the Assumption, M. Jean Marie Joseph Charles La Fonta has been ordained auxiliary bishop of Bordeaux. The Abbe La Fonta is since the church exists, the first deaf mute from birth admitted to the priesthood.

Taught artificial speech, the Abbe La Fonta has been for two years under special observation at Rome, after which a decree of the Holy Office and a special receipt of the Pope opened to him the doors of the priesthood.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND FOR ST. JOHN WORK

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, May 30.—Estimates of the department of immigration and colonization which passed in the house with little discussion today were: $370,000 for contingencies in immigration agencies; $80,000 for exhibitions; $8,180 for the imperial institute; $20,000 for Chinese immigration (enforcing the exclusion order at certain Pacific ports); $6,000 for relief of distressed nationals outside of Canada; and $15,000 for work on St. John immigration buildings.

Miss M. H. McCloskey left last evening for Toronto where she will attend the convention of the Catholic Women's League. She is going as delegate from St. Peter's sub-division. Mrs. John Owens also left for the convention as delegate from the Cathedral parish.
