

The Toronto Times Star

VOL. XIV, No. 183.

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1918

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

AUSTRALIANS AGAIN ADVANCE ON THE WEST

Push Back Enemy At Two Points Despite Heavy German Fire—Hang On Through Summer, Says Churchill, While American Force Grows

With the British Army in France, May 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The Australians last night made another advance, pushing forward their lines 500 yards along a front of 600 yards near Sally Le Sec, on the sector of Amiens. They also pushed back the Germans 300 yards along a front of 500 yards west of Mordancourt, just above Sally Le Sec. Notwithstanding a heavy barrage, the Germans were unable to prevent their advance.

IF WE HOLD WE WIN, SAYS CHURCHILL

London, May 8.—(via Reuter's Limited)—The Anglo-French front in France held steady and husbanded its strength throughout the summer while waiting for aid to come from the United States, says Winston Churchill, minister of munitions, in reply to a resolution of the executive of the National Brass Workers and Metal Mechanics Union. The resolution exhorted all workers at home to help the soldiers in the trenches and not to be sympathetic but by doing their utmost to increase the supply of war munitions and to speed the lighting process.

READING FEATURE IN WALL STREET THIS MORNING

New York, May 8.—Ralls and specialties were the strong features of the outflow of today's stock market dealings, the former being stimulated by reports of a forthcoming substantial increase in freight and passenger rates. Reading was especially active, changing hands in round amounts at an extreme advance of two points. Other coals, also Pacifics, were from one-half to a point higher. Sunnyside Tobacco, an Industrial Alcohol rose 1/2 and 4 points respectively, and Distillers, Atlantic Gulf, Studebaker and Colorado Fuel gained 1 1/2. U. S. Steel made a new maximum of 107 7/8 but reacted fractionally. Liberty Bonds were irregular.

PTE. WM. REARDON HAS BEEN CASSED

Mrs. Margaret Reardon of Suffolk street, West St. John, was advised this morning that her son, Pte. William Reardon, a member of a Construction Battalion overseas, had been killed. Private Reardon was 26 years old, and prior to going overseas worked at construction work at Huron Bay.

MRS. O. D. HANSON PRESIDENT

Last evening the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of Fairville Methodist church held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. O. D. Hanson, Main street. Reports were read by the secretary showing that the year had been a very satisfactory one for the branch, in point of numbers attending and in interest. The treasurer's report indicated that finances exceeded those of the previous year.

C. P. R. HEARS THAT ALL ON THE MEDORA WERE SAVED

Montreal, May 7.—The C. P. R.'s information as to the destruction of the steamer Medora is that she was sunk while outward bound from a European port with passengers, some of whom were probably returning soldiers, and that all the passengers and crew were reported saved.

GROUND GLASS IN JAR OF PRESERVED STRAWBERRIES?

Kingston, Ont., May 8.—The inland revenue department at Ottawa is exchanging a jar of strawberries, supposed to contain ground glass. A farmer of Egan Road bought the preserves in a local store, and soon after eating some of the berries his little daughter was taken ill. The farmer found what appeared like ground glass, and reported the matter to the inland revenue department.

HAS DONE HIS BIT

Pte. R. Bruce Murray, who arrived in Fredericton last Thursday evening on his return from overseas, left for his home in Sheffield, after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Holly Stewart, Pte. Murray, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Sheffield, left in June of 1917 with the 104th Battalion, being then only eighteen years of age. He went to France in November of the same year with the 24th Mounted Rifles. After being through some very heavy engagements during the winter and spring of 1917, he was wounded twice and returned to England to recuperate. When strong enough he took a three months' course in steno-graphy at Hastings, Eng., and was afterwards attached to a reserve battalion.

IS MISSING FOR MORE THAN MONTH

Relatives Fear For Corporal Fred. Turner, M. M.

Soldier Who Has Had Remarkable Career in South Africa, With Northwest Mounted Police And In Present War

Miss Annie Turner, of 74 Stanley street, received a telegram recently notifying her that her brother, Corp. Fred Turner, M. M., has been officially reported missing since March 25. While there is a possibility that he may be a prisoner in Germany, his relatives here have no word from or about him since the date mentioned.

Corporal Turner has had a varied career. At the age of twenty he enlisted with the Canadian troops and sailed for South Africa, where he fought in the Boer war. He then joined Baden Powell's constabulary forces and remained there for three years. Upon his return to Canada he went west and joined the Northwest Mounted Police. Being a trained man he was sent north on special duty and remained there for four years. He was then appointed by the Dominion government to do special duty between Dawson and Fort McPherson. He remained at this special patrol work for some time when word was sent from Ottawa to Dawson City to form a relief party and go in search of the missing patrol and after a lengthy mission to Dawson where they reported finding the patrol and after a lengthy mission to Dawson where they reported finding the patrol and after a lengthy mission to Dawson where they reported finding the patrol.

At the outbreak of the present war Corporal Turner was one of fifty men selected by J. W. Boyle, a millionaire of the Yukon, to form a representative of the north. They joined the 2nd Mounted Rifles and later on a representation of the north. They joined the 2nd Mounted Rifles and later on a representation of the north. They joined the 2nd Mounted Rifles and later on a representation of the north.

Arrangements for the ceremony were in the hands of the Canadian Club, and Dr. J. H. Frink, who was president of the club when the matter was taken up, delivered the chief address of the occasion, while the present president, Judge H. O. McNeerney, unveiled the memorial.

Corporal Turner has two brothers, B. A. and W. H. Turner of this city, also four sisters, Mrs. Lewis Patehall and Miss Annie Turner of St. Stanley street, Mrs. Frank Banks of Somerville, Mass., and Miss Sadie Turner of the Perkins Institute, Waterville, Me.

Honor Memory Of Sir Leonard Tilley

Laurel Wreath of Bronze Placed on Monument on Centenary of His Birth

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of one of the most notable men New Brunswick has produced was solemnly observed this afternoon when a large number of citizens gathered in King square to witness the unveiling of a monument to the memory of the departed statesman, dwelling on his services to his country and his part in the foundation of the Dominion of Canada.

THE LATE SIR L. DONARD TILLEY.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet. He would also like to know for what purpose ministers were going there, and why the business of the house should be held up. The statement that the prime minister was not going Sir Sam said was a disappointment.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet. He would also like to know for what purpose ministers were going there, and why the business of the house should be held up.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet. He would also like to know for what purpose ministers were going there, and why the business of the house should be held up.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet. He would also like to know for what purpose ministers were going there, and why the business of the house should be held up.

BOOTLEGGERS, HE SAYS, ROBBED HIM OF $395

The drive for the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle fund is continuing today with unabated vigor. The reports received at headquarters show that the workers are being cordially received wherever they go and that the money is coming in steadily. While some large sums are being given, it is expected that the total has not yet reached a large number of small contributions.

DRIVE FOR THE RED TRIANGLE FUND WENT ON AGAIN THROUGH TODAY WITH VIGOR

The drive for the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle fund is continuing today with unabated vigor. The reports received at headquarters show that the workers are being cordially received wherever they go and that the money is coming in steadily.

WANT THE INDIAN RESERVE REMOVED FROM DEVON

Fredericton, May 8.—The town of Devon is moving for the removal of the Indian reserve from that town. Unsettled and the French Village reserves have each been suggested.

YOUNG MEN IN I. C. R. GENERAL OFFICES CALLED ON FOR EXAMINATION

Moncton, N. B., May 8.—Orders have been issued to all male employees of the C. C. R. general offices between eighteen years and six months and twenty-two years of age to report for medical examination on Thursday and Friday this week.

ISAAC B. VINCENT DEAD; THREE SONS IN THE WAR

Many will learn with regret of the death of Isaac B. Vincent, which occurred at his residence, 20 St. Peter's street, Bellevue avenue, he leaves four daughters, Mrs. Charles H. Gallop, Mrs. Edward Carlin, Mrs. City Thorne and Miss Bertha Vincent, all of this city; six sons, John, Walter and Beverly, with the Canadian forces in France; William of Augusta, Maine; Ernest of Halifax, and Berlin at home.

MAJOR OF DOMINION SQUARE SENT UP FOR TRIAL AS A LOAFER

Montreal, May 8.—A man enjoying the sobriquet of Mayor of Dominion Square, and D. Viau were sent up for trial today on a charge of idling. The police will visit all pool-rooms and gambling joints and arrest men found there of military age.

Regards It As Vote of Censure

Lloyd George Calls Out Supporters

THE MAURICE AFFAIR

SIR SAM STARTS ROW IN HOUSE

Called To Order Several Times By Speaker

Talks of Chloroform Being Used—Seeking to Put Question Relative to Visits of Ministers to Old Country

Ottawa, May 8.—A sharp clash between the speaker and Sir Sam Hughes marked the opening of this morning's proceedings of the house. Several times in succession Sir Sam was called to order and finally was threatened with "naming" if he did not obey the ruling of the chair. When the motion was reported, Sir Robert Borden intimated that it was his intention to bring the matter up later after he had an opportunity of discussing it with the leader of the opposition.

There were two alternatives, he said, either an adjournment until August 1, or a vote on the matter. He was not prepared to discuss the matter until August 1, but unless prorogation could take place by the 18th it would be necessary for him to come back.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—"Then the motion will be called again today?" "Oh, yes, if necessary," Sir Robert replied. Sir Sam.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

At this point Sir Sam Hughes entered the discussion. Referring to reports in the press, Sir Sam asked if it was the intention of the prime minister to proceed overseas with other members of the cabinet.

PTE. CARL A. PEDERSEN STILL CRITICALLY ILL

Kristian Pedersen of Sandy Point received a telegram from Ottawa this morning notifying him that his brother, Pte. Carl A. Pedersen, is officially reported still critically ill in No. 4 General Hospital. Private Pedersen was badly wounded in the hand and abdomen during the attack on the German line near the village of Hampton, where he was killed.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

FINLAND TO HAVE A KING

Stockholm, May 8.—Sweden, Germany and Finland, it is announced, officially have decided to negotiate a treaty regarding the demolition of the fortification on the Aland Islands.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis.—The depression which was over the Great Lakes yesterday has now reached the lower St. Lawrence Valley. It has caused numerous showers and local thunder storms from Ontario to the maritime provinces. In the west showers have been fairly general, with a change to colder weather.

Forecasts.—Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Northwest to west winds, fresh during the day, fair and cool; Thursday, fair with higher temperature.

Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence—Fresh to strong south to west winds, showers today; Thursday fair and cool.

Lower St. Lawrence, Gulf and North Shore—Fresh to strong south to west winds, showers today; Thursday fair and cool.

Maritime—Fresh to strong south to west winds, occasional showers; Thursday, generally fair and a little cooler.

Superior—Moderate winds, a few light scattered showers but generally fair and cool; higher temperature on Thursday.

All West—Fair and cool today and on Thursday; frost tonight.

New England—Fair tonight; cooler; extreme eastern Maine, possibly light frost; Thursday fair, moderate to fresh west winds.

Ontario—Fair tonight; cooler; extreme eastern Ontario, possibly light frost; Thursday fair, moderate to fresh west winds.

Quebec—Fair tonight; cooler; extreme eastern Quebec, possibly light frost; Thursday fair, moderate to fresh west winds.

Atlantic—Fair tonight; cooler; extreme eastern Atlantic, possibly light frost; Thursday fair, moderate to fresh west winds.

POLITICAL CRISIS CALLS KAISER TO POTSDAM

Berne, Switzerland, May 8.—(British Admiralty, per Wireless Press)—English Premier Lloyd George has returned to Potsdam owing to a political crisis resulting from the rejection of suffrage reforms by the Prussian Diet. Count Von Hertling, the imperial chancellor, has been summoned to Potsdam to meet on the situation.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy Arsenault took place this morning from her late residence, Simons street, St. Peter's church, where high mass of requiem was celebrated. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Bertha Woods took place this afternoon from her late residence, Quebec street, Trinity church, where burial services were conducted by Rev. Canon Armstrong. Interment was made in Fernhill.